6 Kimbee Claudia qualified well and is now making her debut for Philip di Luca. Is well drawn and and from this lane she should reach a good position. 8 Samira M.B.S. has a tricky lane in her first start, but the horse is well-bred and the Björn Goop stable is in fine form. 10 Mellby Orkide is promising but has galloped in two straight starts. Early choice without a mistake. 5 Izigubhu is a son to Timbal. Has to be considered but this lane is tricky.

4 Ifigenia of Brown made a fantastic debut when she won in a splendid 1.14-time. She could be even improved now and has top chance. 7 Gordon Gekko is probably the only horse who could challenge. Scored a good win in the debut and looks promising. 1 Our Perfect is well drawn. 2 Atmospere chases money.

1 Rupert Boko comes with two straight wins and there is no doubt that this is a great talent. Now he faces very tough opposition for this class, but the horse has impressed so much that he should have a good chance. 2 Västerbo Sparkly won the debut nicely after trip from second on the outside. Uses to finish fast. 8 Intro was strong in his debut. Poor lane, but owns good strength. 5 Non Stop Mearas is coming more and more.

4 Pretty Effect did really well in Sweden last autumn and showed good capacity for this class. Is a quick starter and despite a longer layoff the horse should have a sensible chance of winning. 6 Lancelot won an easy race despite a poor number two starts back and was third in the last race. Good form and a good driver. Early choice. 2 Bubble Marke is in good form and ideally drawn. 7 Assar Rapid is better than the results show.

5 Global Emperor likes to race under the saddle and should have top chance even if he faces quite tough conditions money-wise. Mediocre opposition. 9 Odens Riff has been improved a lot under the saddle and likes to be ridden Jenny A Björk. Barefoot again 10 Whoopsy Laday is perhaps the horse with the best speed resources but has not convinced lately. 8 Månskentindra could be a place bet.

6 Dream Loverboy is matched in good company. Comes from victory against easy opponents. Should be considered early here. 4 Midnight Madness was fourth in the last the V85 race. Easier horses here and barefoot again. 5 Roy is strong and tough, but still a bit slow. With the right journey he will be in the match. 2 German Kaiser has good capacity, but has galloped in three of seven starts. He is better than the results suggest.

7 Illuminato is a very nice horse. Galloped in the last circular so today's starting method is an advantage. He should have an excellent chance together with Daniel Wäjersten. 10 Kaprizov is very promising. Could be a horse for the bigger races in Norway later this season but is disadvantaged by this number. 4 Large Level is better than the results show and an early contender here. 9 Muguet d'Erable is tricky, but owns good strength.
