7 Tix never disappoints and could make it to the Norwegian elite. Our pick. 4 The Way I Talk Ås competed during the Elitloppet weekend last time, but never had a real chance from a poor lane. Showed good form before that. Main challenger to the big favorite. 1 Excalibur Gene has really impressed for Frode Hamre. Different opposition now, but should not be overlooked. 6 Monalisa BR galloped in the comeback in the last race at Åmål. Is consistent and a contender even if the form is hard to predict.

2 Spang Tix is only four years old but has really taken fantastic steps and has four wins in a row and is still undefeated this season. Good chance even though his rivals are more experienced. 4 Grisle Best G.L. is not entirely reliable, but without a mistake he has enough speed to challenge the favorite. 9 Horg Blessen has galloped in three straight starts, but is an early contender here without a gallop along the way. 7 Boxer Ø.K. is speedy.

14 Bare Mattis is a real winning machine who does well every time. Only missed the podium three times in 44 starts, which shows what a strong horse he is. Faces a tough handicap, but has a good chance nonetheless. 3 Aske Balder is also a real winning machine with 21 wins in 31 starts. Is driven again by Eirik Høitomt. 11 Trolljerven has done well for Malmin. 4 Briskeby Pilen is possible too without a mistake.

3 Prank was tested in the Swedish V85 two starts back, but didn't convince at all that day. Showed good pace both before and after that start, so there is no doubt that the horse owns good capacity. Perfect conditions and good chance. 12 Goffa has two runs under his belt after a layoff and is coming more and more. 8 Kentucky Field has two wins in a row and has to be considered despite a poor lane. 1 Fargas T.K. has been consistent and good.

1 Last Story has really done well recently and put in strong performances. Is not reliable and this inside lane is not optimal, even though he opens well. From the lead the horse should have a very good chance. 7 Genius is tough and strong in every way. Tricky number but can do it tough. 4 Tayno B.B. prefers to run in front. 3 Yukon Töll is in great shape.

11 Millthalia has been really strong lately. Has shown top form for a long time and even though the conditions are different now she is our pick here. 4 Nore'n has two wins in a row, taken in a nice way. Faces nice conditions in this first circle and won't be easy to catch if she competes at her best this time too. 9 HMHippokrene is very interesting here together with Vidar Hop. Has nice skills and owns good speed. 12 L.A.'s A Million is tough and strong.
