Summary: LE PRINCE DE JYR (5) made a good impression in his return to action and looks the one they all have to beat. He will, however, need to see off the Laudren-trained duo, headed by LIPTON DE CLERCE (4), a strong finisher last time out, and LARSON DU MARNIS (8), who could take some catching if keeping his stride throughout. L'INDIEN PEARL (11) appears the best of those starting from the second line and should not be underestimated.

L'ETOILE DE PAME (13) holds solid claims having finished ahead of several of these rivals at Agen in March. LABLETTE JIHEM (7), a previous winner at this track, and the classy LAGHERTHA DU PONT (15) also have the quality to win a race of this nature.

Summary: A very open race. NARCOS DE BRION (3) would have finished much closer at Royan-Atlantique but for a costly early error.
