5 BW Zorro is capable but not at all to be trusted. The times he behaved, however, he won convincingly. 9 Guldhagens Pirat impressed as a three-year-old and won half of his ten appearances. High capacity and is fast enough to finish to victory 3 Eld Loke CG has become more consistent at the end and scored two straight wins. Here again it looks like he will have a good chance to take the lead. 7 Friska Viljan has been matched against tough horses and is well prepared.

2 Kurtz had not raced for a while but put in a strong effort on the outside of the leader in the last seasonal debut. With that run under his belt he should have a good chance in the lead. 4 Farao Eagra had to come from far back in a fast finish last time and never had a real chance. Won three out of six starts and prefers to run in the front. 5 Bellfort has taken both victories of his career from the lead. That was at the small Visby track but we take him seriously here too. 8 Excellent Cash has not been at his best yet but is significantly better than shown.

7 Pellegrino Pellini failed in a Kriteriet heat from the back of the leader in last year's final start. Now he has got a winter of training and comes out stronger than ever and steps down significantly in class and is also over a more suitable distance. 5 Grab The Moment has been improved at the end and prefers to run in the front. This time with American bike and barefoot. 1 Charlestone has shown good form and should be counted early with the right journey. 3 Domino Vendil has shown good form lately.

2 Haxo D'Avignere put in a solid effort as second last time despite a short gallop initially. This distance is an advantage and should take the lead here. From there he has taken six out of seven victories. 1 Coin Master won convincingly in easier company, and the impression was strong. From here he could get a nice trip from behind Haxo D'Avignere and wait until the home stretch. 3 David Frontline galloped on the way to a second place shortly before the finish last time. 9 Savoy Brown is up and down, but has been matched against tough opponents.

1 Mizai held strongly from the outside of the leader in a tough V75 final in last year's final start and has been heading for a new successful season. He is a fast starter behind the gate and is said to be well prepared for this seasonal debut. 3 Otroligosåfin looked brilliant in his comeback and finished with energy left over the finish line in the last run. 6 Red Hot Roadster has been scoring many wins lately, but faces better opposition now. 7 Marre's Dreamboy is very gifted and a good V75 horse when he is at his best.

7 Kilgore is very gifted and qualified for the three-year-old elite at Solvalla last year. The first victory of the career is close at hand and now with two runs under his belt it may be time. 5 Spader has won four out of six races over the middle distance, but faster tracks are still a handicap for him. He can open quite fast and will of course fight for victory in this company. 9 Superior Bro is good for this class and should be counted early in case of quick pace. 6 High On Life Vixi was not at his best last time. Is driven by Djuse now.
