She ran well when fourth in a Class 2 event and now reopposes MCTENETT (13), who finished second ahead of her last time at Fontainebleau. NATIONAL SERVICE (4) appeals as a solid each-way option, having performed well when fourth in a Class 2 at this track in mid-March. GAME RUN (3) and HORTENSIA BASC (16) are also in the mix and can battle for the minor honours.

8. ROYAL BAY CEN - Filly by New Bay, the dam won 2 races including a Group 3 over 1000m. Speed on her dam side and she is one to monitor in the betting

Summary: SBIKHA (2) ran a decent race on her debut at Saint-Cloud over 900m late last month and can improve from that experience and get the better of LIMPIDE (3), who was a length behind in third in the same race. NO TUNE (7) has a speedy pedigree, and her dam was a winner of a Listed race and placed in a Group 3. She can be involved, as can the only colt in the lineup PITCH PERFECT (1), who is out of a mare that won over 1200m.

Summary: In a small but competitive field, it might pay to side with the Andre Fabre-trained AVIDE (4), who won nicely on his debut last November, in a race that has produced several winners. He is marginally preferred over PIQUOISEAU (2), who won by over two lengths on his sole start at Bordeaux Le Bouscat in late October and looks a nice prospect. His main threat could be BECH RIVER (8), who was a narrow margin behind in fifth in the same race 12 days ago, and the two could fight out the finish.
