Summary: BARBADIN (8) needs to be forgiven for his latest outing when failing to put his best foot forward and is one that can show a form turnaround here of a mark that he should challenge off. BONNY WAY (9) brings winning form to the table and despite rising in class, she should be in with a bright chance over a suitable trip. He gets the services of Christian Demuro which catches the eye and he rates the one to beat. KAWAALOT (12) has some fairly solid form to his name and despite having not won a race just yet, he has the right credentials to get it right. SENONNIAN (5) started off his career on the right note but hasn't kicked on since then although recent efforts suggest that win number two isn't far away. PLATA D OCTOBRE (15) does meet the boys but slots in with a nice galloping weight and can be a factor here.
