Summary: If able to secure the lead early, JULIUS ECUS (4) could prove very hard to catch and has every chance of making all. The opposition looks strong, however, headed by JE REVE DE TOI (6), who arrives in peak condition and continues to perform at a high level. JOGGER KILY (11) also commands respect after a convincing display on the turf at Bernay last time out. Although not the easiest horse to predict, JOYAU DAIRPET (7) possesses plenty of ability and has the ability to be competitive if producing his best form.

LASER QUICK (6) who also jumps off on the front line boasts the ability to play a major role if he can maintain his stride throughout. Both of them will need to make full use of that initial advantage, however, as LORD BLACKWOOD (10) and LABEL TURGOT (11) possess plenty of class and can make their presence felt despite their initial 25 meters handicap.

MARINELLA VRIE (8) made an encouraging return at Vincennes and shapes as a major threat. MUSCDARCHE (3) also enters calculations on the strength of some very solid form lines. MELCHIOR JAMES (6) is capable of producing a strong late finish if things fall his way.

Summary: The key to this race may well lie on the second row runners. JAGUAR DJOB (13) arrives on the back of a convincing performance at Saint-Malo and looks set to play a major role if reproducing that effort. ILTON DE BELLANDE (14) was noted staying on in a recent competitive race at Vincennes and should be suited by the conditions. IMPERATOR D'EM (11) is currently at the top of his game and commands plenty of respect. On the front row, JUPILLE DE GODREL (3) is the most appealing option. Representing a top yard, he looks well positioned to capitalise if the back markers fail to fully deliver.

Summary: MELODY LUDOISE (5) made a big impression at Laval last time out and clearly remains well entered considering the prize-money she has won thus far. She looks the one to be on.
