9 Cool Hand Energy is a real winning machine who has scored eleven victories in 17 starts. He is not completely reliable and comes to this start with two straight gallops, which is of course a bit worrying. In terms of capacity he is very good for this race and without a mistake he should have top chance. 10 Vincent Sun was not at his best last time but can do much better than that. 12 Fridi has not started for a long time and could use this run under his belt. Possible with the right trip. 7 Allegra Avanza is quite gifted. Needs some luck from this position.

1 Malika is relatively new in Frode Hamre's training and after two gallops her first win came last time. She impressed when she won in a fast time over the short distance and it is clear that the horse has great capacity for this class. Normally she will win this. 9 Laureen B.R. disappointed as a big favorite in the last race. Needs to show improvement. Has good skills. 6 Kashmina B.R. has a run under her belt after a long layoff. She is improving. 2 She Wolf is on the way up.

12 Birk Faxen impresses most every time for team Vidar Tjomsland/Stine Birkeland. Comes with four straight wins and the horse should normally beat these opponents. Despite the lane the six-year-old has top chance. 8 Solan R.S. has really good speed but is not reliable at all and has also got a disappointing starting position. 9 Månstjernas Rex was nice two starts back but is not reliable at all. 6 Hassel Herakles was clearly improved in the last race. Possible if the favorite would fail.

7 Oracle Tile returns after a long layoff and is of course not at his best yet. However, he is normally a lot better than these competitors and the chance of winning should still be good. 4 Bordeaux S. scored a good win in the last race and has a nice starting position. 2 Wishful Order is coming more and more and finished with energy left after a nice journey last time. 8 Don't Say Gar is in great shape but has a terrible lane.

2 Timestile R. was heavily backed in the Norwegian Trotting Derby, but finished only sixth. He has done well after that and with a lane inside his main rival, he is the leading horse of the race. 3 Southbeach Volo scored a big upset when he won the Norwegian Trotting Derby. Barefoot again, just like last time. 1 Clodrique is getting stronger and stronger and has been matched in the V75. She is now facing tough opponents. 5 Tix did well as second in the Norwegian Derby in September, but not been as good after that.

10 Weekend Vibe has impressed most every time since the horse was bought to Norway. Got locked in with lots of energy left last time and even if the starting position could have been better this time the horse could sprint to victory. Our pick. 2 Odd Viking has two wins in a row and should have a nice chance of reaching the front. From there he will not be easy to reach. 9 Excalibur Gene is good for this class. He galloped straight from the start last time and we forget that race. 5 Petite Papillon has good speed.
