9 Cool Trix and Kiwi Sisu met in the last race and it was decided on the finish line in Kiwi Sisu's favour - despite Cool Trix being able to take an early lead. However, he will be better now and is our pick. 10 Kiwi Sisu is in fine form and a real ice track lover. Main challenger. 3 Last Dying Breath was awesome when he won in a 1.10-time at Harstad last summer beating Cool Trix. Front again? 7 Gates Hanover is good for this class but needs to be improved.

12 Babish finished really well from far behind two starts back and in the last race she won easily from the front. The trainer still sounds happy with her horse, good chance. 7 Hominid competed in the same race last time and was more heavily backed than Babish. Better draw now and can get revenge. 4 Cypress Hill is a bit up and down and did not convince last Monday. Is gifted. 3 Space Raja was not good at all in the last race in debut for the new trainer but had been working well.

9 Jimmy Adore won from outside the leader in the last V85 race and beat good horses. Faces easier opponents this time and should have top chance. 11 Fantasy Sensation is capable but does not always trot well. The trainer is pleased with how the horse has worked now after the break. 3 Guenerina just kept up the pace in the last V85-race but did not impress. She won three races at Solvalla last year. 7 Electrical W.F. won a heat and final last autumn and earned a lot of money. Not as good after that.

7 Magnitize Me has made three starts in the northern part of Sweden and been the talk of the town all the time. Easy win in the last V85-race and likes the ice. 1 Service Bulletin galloped with energy left in the last V85-race and now she is our favorite for the lead in this race. Ohlsson this time. 6 Healthy Meal was big favorite in the last race but he was a bit slow and gave up at the end. Ice debut then, better now. 13 Sensitive Tile scored a good win and in the last V85-race at V85 she was a non-starter due to a material defect.

He looks nice and could find an early lead. 12 Done Deal was close to lead throughout in the last V85-race and will sprint fast, but this number is really poor. 3 Merveilleux Sisu has always been promising and has started to improve this autumn. Made a mistake from the start last time. 10 Pommac W.F. has three wins in a row but is mostly a bit slow.
