5 Miss Rachel Zane has been upgraded this season after two convincing wins. Possible anyway if the mare stands this longer distance. 4 El Pepino finished last year with a second-place finish under today's conditions. Despite carrying a significant top weight, he should still be considered. 3 Princess Latifa won a maiden race over the current distance of 2200 meters last year and could be a serious challenger if well prepared. 1 Stella Grande was impressive last year, winning four races. While she has won over today's conditions, her preferred distance is over 2400 meters.

5 King Of showed some decent performances last year. He will be wearing blinkers for his first start of the year and is our pick in this maiden race. 7 Ocean Girl did not race as a two-year-old, but the trainer uses to have the horses well prepared. 4 Dakota River was clearly beaten into fourth place in a quite competitive maiden race in the only start last year. Possible contender. 6 Bud looked very good in a qualifying race in July 2022, but was scratched from a planned debut in the same month. He is a typical outsider.

2 Thatsthefinest won four times as a three-year-old, including once on Jägersro's dirt track over the current distance of 1200 meters. He is a top pick for the win. 1 Dominic narrowly edged out Thatsthefinest for second place in their previous meeting last year, but gives weight to him today. Main challenger. 3 Filia Kalejs won a Silver Handicap over similar conditions last year and is likely to be in the mix if sharpened up for the season debut. 4 Grey Ascension usually performs strongly in the first race of the year and the current conditions of 1200 meters are ideal. Outsider.

1 Hasard De Faust had a disappointing end to last season but had scored two strong wins in a row prior to that. He will be wearing blinkers in this seasonal debut and is a top pick for the win. 2 Djelano won over today's conditions of 1200 meters at Bro Park in October and has also won over similar conditions in Malmö. 6 No Risk No Reward was unable to win last year but still had some positive performances. He could be a contender, especially with Elione Chaves riding. 7 Inka Des Violettes was placed in seven of eight starts last year, including a win on Jägersro's dirt track. An outsider.

5 Steinar was second in both the Voter and the Derby last year and won the Hurricane race. Despite carrying top weight and facing tough competition in this seasonal debut, he is the top pick to win. 1 Sea Lieutenant won twice in the same class last year, although over a mile. Moving up in distance should not be a problem and he is a contender. 4 Crystal Keys is up and down but caused an upset by winning the Malmö Sommarhandicap over today's conditions last year. Typical outsider. 3 I Apple is making the seasonal debut for a new trainer. With suitable conditions and Jacob Johansen riding, he could cause a surprise here.

9 Neville Chamberlain had a strong season as a four-year-old and won three races that year, including one over the current distance of 1600 meters. Our pick here. 7 Malibu Lagoon finished narrowly beaten twice at the end of last year. He will be ridden with blinkers for his seasonal debut, and is an early contender. 1 Civilon carries top weight in the handicap, but otherwise faces suitable conditions, and the inside post should mean a good trip. 4 Krigar Drottning has some ability and looks particularly interesting in his first start for trainer Francisco Castro.
