GRAND SLAM 75

RACE 1

Volt 2140

4 Kitty Mearas is well-bred and impressed greatly in her first race. She handled the start well, then ran outside of the leader throughout the race and seemed to have plenty of energy left. 7 Thomasine has shown great capacity in the beginning of her career. She won last time after being driven outside the leader for most of the race. 6 Bagheera Montana has impeccable pedigree. Readly Express as the father and Frome Above as the maternal grandfather. She looked very good in her qualifying race. Interesting. 10 Kapucine d'Inverne was clearly impressive in her qualifying race with a nice finish.

2 G.R.J.'s Wolverine is unbeaten under the saddle after seven starts, which is impressive. Despite being nine years old, he is in the form of his life and has the country's most successful jockey. 5 Zeolit is a worthy opponent. He has only made two starts in the discipline, with a second place as his best result. He is used to tough competition. 8 Reven Dejavu is making his first start in this discipline here. He has been matched against tough V75-horses and will be interesting to watch here. 1 Lord Horse looked loaded with saved energy last time out. He has only started under the saddle once, and galloped then.

In her qualifying race, she took a calm start and impressed thereafter. 7 Stop the Count started her career with a win and aside from two gallop failures, she has performed well. 3 Jula Sunshine did well in her latest start and should improve with the two previous races under her belt.

7 Versace Face earned over 700,000 SEK last year and showed great strength that often resulted in good performances. New class and season debut but can do it tough. 8 Kagan was even more successful last season as a four-year-old, earning over 1 million SEK and finishing fourth in the Derby. Interesting to see in this seasonal debut and a top contender. 6 Remarkable Feet is better than the last results show. Is fast and has the advantage of a number directly behind the gate. 5 Ubiquarian Face has good potential and is making his debut for a new trainer. An outsider.

3 Current Leader has looked splendid for a while but he does not win very often. Led for a long time in his last race and got locked in with lots of energy left before that. 9 Swan Hill scored a good second spot two races ago. Tricky number again, but is good enought to finish to victory. 4 Yankee Doodle gave a good performance last time out and was simply superior after an offensive journey to the lead. Likes this number. 12 Campagne de Press had energy left last time and is the richest horse in the race.

2 Caughtredhanded was improved last time and after a quick start to the lead, he defended his position nicely to score a surprise victory. Should be considered early today. 3 Nobby Stiles Boko produced a strong finish last time and was not far off from our winner. Better draw now and chases quick revenge. 7 Dats Tore defeated our winner with ease in the lead last time out. He is a promising horse with good potential for further development. Will be making his debut behind the gate. 1 Loveislove Pellini could benefit from the inside post position.

Can do it tough. 2 Bottom Line opened fast to the lead in the last run and was just closely defeated. Interesting conditions again. 4 One Night Only has shown good form lately and finished well to second in the last run. Will soon score a win again.

6 Florence has won four out of six races. As a three-year-old, she showed a talent that makes her interesting even against competition from her own age group this year. Excellent seasonal debut. 11 Angel of Mercy finished fast in a bigger race for fillies and mares last time out, and with improving form she is a challenger despite the post position. 5 Al's Showmethehill is a good trotter who can open up and get a nice run. Better now with a race under her belt. 3 Västerbo Razzia has been up and down lately but showed good capacity to score the latest win.

1 Nikylon competed against tough horses as a three-year-old and showed in the seasonal debut that he has improved even more. Fine win in the lead last time and a good chance to reach the front again. 9 Supermackan has been good every time this year but has yet to cross the finish line first and has settled for second places. Will soon score a win again. 5 Staro Quincy didn't find room in time two starts ago but finished well and is on the way up. Is tough and early contender behind the favorite. 6 Global Dream on has scored a couple of good wins. The form is a question mark though.

He has a strong finishing kick and is a challenger. 15 Xerxes Millpond set a personal best time in his last V75 start and has gained toughness that may pay off. 8 Power Håleryd was forced to take the lead in his debut last time out and scored a good victory. Tight starts now.
