4 Adthemission owns good capacity but is sometimes a bit tricky. Most recently he failed as a huge favorite and has got a break after that. He won in a big way the time before together with Tom Johansson who is the driver again here. 1 Daniel Frontline has shown good form for a long time and finished fast last time when he found a late opening. 6 Ben Hogan uses to put in strong efforts and often meets tough opponents. However, he does not win very often. 2 Pay Me can do better than last time and faces nice conditions here.

12 Zebulon galloped directly from the start last time in a heat to the Kungapokalen. Before that, he showed good strength when he had to run on the outside of the leader in the V75 two starts back. Nice draw here and not impossible that he finds the lead after a bit. 9 Jikininki owns good capacity for this class and finished well in tough company last time. 2 Wehadthemall has shown good form and is our favorite for the lead. 10 Cherieff Sund showed good capacity last year and likes the long distance.

11 Cutting Corners competed in an Oaks heat two starts back as well in a Breeders Crown-heat last autumn. She is matched in tougher fields and despite this number, she should have a good chance directly in the seasonal debut. 6 Sandy At The Beach has shown good speed resources. Can open fast and will compete barefoot for the first time in his life. 1 French Omelette never found room last time. Good for this class and an early contender but needs some luck with this number. 2 Back To Black can do much better than shown at the end.

5 Herakles Zet was not empty when galloping into the home stretch in the Kungapokalen last time. He was strong from the lead in his seasonal debut but got beaten by Baron Tilly. With two runs under his belt and close to top form, he is looking for a quick revenge. 8 Gigi Hanover is new in the Wäjersten stable and interesting. The Chapter Seven-daughter was successful in the USA as a three-year-old. We expect her to be well prepared immediately in this Swedish debut. 7 Cabron was extremely good in a top time in the last run. 3 Macahan is matched against tough opponents and good for this class.
