6 Mysterious Lucifer has done well in five starts this year and now it's time for his second ridden race ever. Did alright as third in the first start under the saddle, but is in better form now. Quick starter and should have a good chance. 9 Patriot Zon has good skills but is also a bit up and down. Interesting in this discipline and ridden by talented Iina Aho. 4 Kim Peek has done well so far but faces tougher opposition here. 7 Global Difference is capable too.

5 Rip Wheeler has always shown good capacity, but been even improved for André Eklundh. Has done really well lately and should handle the Tingsryd track. Good chance. 3 Frank Silvio owns good capacity. Galloped last time, but that was an accident. The horse is normally stable and also good for this class. From a perfect lane he is an early contender here. 1 Stella Lane has two wins in a row. 2 Kiss The Teacher faces tougher opposition.

10 Sandsjöns Cantona is our pick in a wide open race. The horse made his comeback in the last race and scored a good win in an easy field. American bike now and should be considered early. 11 Bys Yubraj does not always trot perfectly and the Tingsryd track could be a plus. Owns good strength and capacity for this class. 6 Tanjo Lane has shown good form and is quite a fast starter. Goop is highly interesting. 9 Second Serve was nice in the last race.

1 Haute Couture is very well-bred and has also started his career really well. Has been improved this season and scored the first win last time. Is still developing. Early choice. 4 Run Rhapsody Run is also a very well-bred mare with a very talented mother. She galloped a lot in the beginning, but lately has been improved a lot lately. 6 Pure Glamour has a run under her belt after the winter training. On the way up. 5 Mamadou Pellini is a half-sister to El Mago Pellini.

10 Rendezvous Zon has done very well for Robert Bergh. Both this distance and the long home stretch should benefit the horse. Has a good chance of winning. 3 Opening Night is very consistent and good and likes the longer distances. Driven by Örjan Kihlström and early choice. 6 Orosei Boko has a useful run under his belt. Tricky number, but the horse is strong and tough. Should be in the mix. 8 Global Education has shown good form and will soon score a victory.

12 Meghan B.R. has been the best horse of her year in Norway. Made her debut last time for Daniel Redén, but galloped then. Is versatile and normally she has top chance here. 10 Graces Bird has looked very nice in both starts this year. With the right journey from behind, she will finish fast. 8 Urbina Southwind has won three of four starts this year. Can open fast but this starting position is tricky. 5 Gudrid Face has good capacity but is a bit up and down.

6 Carros First King has impressed for the new trainer. Can do it tough and should have a good chance. 1 Montanaro showed good capacity as a 3-year-old. Has got a run under his belt before this race and barefoot behind for the first time is interesting. Early choice. 2 Helan Går competes barefoot behind and from a perfect starting position, he should be considered early even though he did not convince in the last race. 8 Unicum started his career brilliantly but hasn't impressed since then. One run under his belt now and barefoot.
