RACINGTV PROUDLY SUPPORTS TEENAGE CANCER TRUST
HANDICAP HURDLE (5) 3yo+ (Rated 0-100) £8,000
2¼m25y (3640 Metres)

Going: Good to Firm (Good in places)

Left handed, generally flat, with the hurdles course separate to the chase one and around a furlong shorter in length. The position of the final obstacle on both tracks was placed closer to the winning post from October 2012, negating the previous 2f run to the line, ensuring there is less emphasis on stamina than previously. It's true to say that conditions can get gruelling in midwinter, but on anything other than soft/heavy ground it's a track which is essentially sharp in character. Casualty rates on the chase course have decreased in recent years, for no obvious reason other than the fences presumably aren't quite so stiff as used to be the case.

Pace Information: Weak

1	SCOTS POET (19) (C)	b+t	96
	31-211U25 10 12-0 76.2kg Ewan Whillans Enjoying a fine time of things in 2026, winning on 3 of his previous 6 completed starts and finishing runner-up at Cartmel in July. Perhaps made effort earlier than ideal when fifth of 6 at Sedgefield (17f, firm) 19 days ago but longer trip might stretch him and is now high enough in the weights.	Conor O'Farrell
2	FINE POINT (IRE) (19)		99
	6043-13U4 5 11-10 74.4kg Adam Nicol Well-backed winner of a 2m Hexham handicap on only his third start for present yard in May. Has run to a similar level on both completed outings since, most recently when fourth of 6 in handicap hurdle at Sedgefield (17f, firm, 4/1) 19 days ago. Has 5-lb claimer back in the saddle.	Joshua Thompson (5lb/2kg)
3	STRUTH (IRE) (32)	s+t	98
	4055-6666 6 11-4 71.7kg Lucinda Russell & Michael Scudamore Fairly useful middle-distance winner on the Flat. Step up in trip saw him finish closer than previously over hurdles when beaten just over 3 lengths at Perth in July but rather predictably failed to back that up there last month.	Derek Fox
4	HIJO DE LA LUNA (GER) (19)	v	98
	56/3P5-4 6 11-1 70.3kg Simon West Barely modest form on the Flat this year and ran to just a similar level when fourth of 10 in handicap hurdle (16/1) at Sedgefield (17f, firm) 19 days ago, picking up an extra place on the run-in. Frame claims again in a thin-looking race.	Bruce Lynn
5	WISPIT TWOB (IRE) (12)	v	87
	F260P-P 4 11-1 70.3kg Martin Keighley Runner-up in academy hurdle on second start in Ireland last November. Made a discouraging start in handicaps for current yard last spring, though, and pulled up on return from 5-month break 12 days ago. Now visored.	Freddie Keighley (5lb/2kg)

1	HANDMEDOWNASTAR (IRE) (16) (BF)	92
	32-15 6 11-7 73.0kg
	Nick Scholfield  Sean Bowen
Irish point winner who went the right way in 3 hurdle starts for Seamus Mullins, nudged out for an 8-length success in a Fontwell novice in late-May. Looked and shaped as if in need of the outing when fifth of 8 in handicap at Cartmel (2¾m, good to soft) 16 days ago and he remains open to progress.
2	HOE JOLY SMOKE (12)	s+t  100
	P/33566-21 8 11-7 73.0kg
	Dan Skelton  Harry Skelton
Dual chase winner who was a good third in the Paddy Power Gold Cup at Cheltenham in November. Made the most of a good opportunity back over hurdles when winning a 5-runner novice at Bangor (2½m) and he sets the standard for all he's not the most robust.
3	HOPELESS DANCER (287) (BF)	85

	Tim Reed Harry Reed
Placed in bumpers and hurdles for the Twiston-Davies stable but his form over timber is no better than modest. Will need improvement if he's to strike on this first outing for a new yard after a 9-month break.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

HOE JOLY SMOKE is never one for maximum faith on account of his weak finishing but he should still be good enough to follow up from his recent Bangor success. Handmedownastar will prove the biggest threat ahead of Hopeless Dancer.

Going: Good to Firm (Good in places)

Left handed, generally flat, with the hurdles course separate to the chase one and around a furlong shorter in length. The position of the final obstacle on both tracks was placed closer to the winning post from October 2012, negating the previous 2f run to the line, ensuring there is less emphasis on stamina than previously. Pace Information: Very Weak

1	LORIKO (FR) (6lb/3kg ex) (7) (D)	97
	262-11211 5 12-6 78.9kg
	Dan Skelton Harry Skelton
Has thrived this summer, making it 4 wins from his last 5 starts in 5-runner handicap hurdle at Sedgefield (2½m, good) last week, leading after 2 out and staying on well to draw clear. Turned out under a penalty and fancied to be bang there this mood (also entered up later in week).
2	CONTINUANCE (60)	99
	P223-4229 5 11-10 74.4kg
	Martin Keighley Freddie Keighley (5lb/2kg)
Free-going sort whose losing run is mounting but has been in good form this summer, finishing runner-up twice in a row. Faced a stiff task in the Summer Handicap at Market Rasen a couple of months ago and is back in much calmer waters with his usual hood reapplied.
3	BOLD LIGHT (IRE) (66) (CD)	100
	84U434-35 9 11-3 71.2kg
	Lucinda Russell & Michael Scudamore Gregor Walkingshaw (10lb/5kg)
Won pair of Class 2 handicaps in 2024/25 (including over C&D) before drawing a blank last season. Took a step back in the right direction in first-time cheekpieces when fifth of 9 at Perth (2½m) in July and though his yard is struggling for winners, he looks potentially well handicapped.
4	DREAM'S KA (FR) (54)	95
	507-21218 4 10-11 68.5kg
	Katie Scott Ryan Mania
Won pair of 2½m handicaps at Bangor/Utttoxeter this season. Progression came to a halt at the latter course on final start for Dan Skelton before being sold for only £7000 last month. Probably vulnerable off this mark.
5	HEART ABOVE (60) (CD)	98
	64P97-1P9 8 10-8 67.1kg
	Dianne Sayer Peter Kavanagh
Course specialist who needed every yard of the trip to capitalise on a drop in grade in C&D hurdle in May. No show twice at Cartmel since but hopes pinned on a return to this track (record reads 3 wins and 5 placed efforts from 11 starts).
6	STARLYTE (IRE) (116) (CD)	97
	467744-34 9 10-2(10-1) 64.4kg (64.0kg)
	Lucinda Russell & Michael Scudamore Patrick Wadge
Nigh-on 18 months since she last tasted success over C&D but is lurking on an attractive mark on the pick of her form. Ran a typical race when fourth of 7 at Cartmel (25f, good) when last seen 4 months ago and the suspicion is she will need this outing. 1 lb out of weights.

6 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

10-11 Loriko, 13-2 Bold Light, 15-2 Continuance, 15-2 Dream's Ka, 10-1 Starlyte, 20-1 Heart Above

TIMEFORM VIEW:

LORIKO continues to carry all before him this summer, making it 4 wins from his last 5 starts at Sedgefield last week and Dan Skelton's 5-y-o gets the verdict to carry on his winning spree under a 6-lb penalty. Bold Light is a long time without a win, but he's become potentially well handicapped as a result so can provide most resistance, with Continuance rounding off the shortlist returned to calmer waters.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

	Anthony McCann, Ireland	James Smith
	Fair hurdler/chaser who got back to winning ways in handicap hurdle at Down Royal in March. Placed on next 3 outings and shaped as if still in good heart when sixth in maiden chase at Wexford in June. Respected but yard 1 from 32 with British runners so far. Engaged 3.30 Uttoxeter Tuesday.
2	FAIRLAWN SKIPPER (2) (BF)	★	100
	34-901U12 6 12-0 76.2kg
	Mickey Bowen	Shane Fenelon
	Back on song on first start in a 0-100 when seeing off 8 rivals at Cartmel in July. Resumed winning ways at Newton Abbot (3¼m) 9 days ago before again running well when runner-up at Sedgefield on Monday. Interesting chasing debutant though drop back in trip not ideal.
3	LIMERICK LEADER (FR) (71b/3kg ex) (7) (C)	b+t	★ 100
	22-233411 9 11-13 75.7kg

	Bounced back under an attacking ride to capitalise on a reduced mark in a 7-runner event at Bangor earlier in the month and proved at least as good when following up in 3-runner event at Sedgefield (3¼m) last week. Back in trip but should get own way in front again so respected under a penalty.
4	MOONLIGHTINTHEPARK (IRE) (12)	t	99
	46796P-4 5 10-7 66.7kg
	Oliver Greenall & Josh Guerriero	Charlie Maggs (31b/1kg)
	Runner-up to a promising one sole start in Irish points but it was all rather underwhelming under Rules last season. Showed aptitude for chasing at the second attempt and possibly just needed the run after 5 months off at Bangor (2½m, good) recently. More needed here.

4 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

5-4 Limerick Leader, 7-4 Fairlawn Skipper, 11-2 Rockstown Girl, 12-1 Moonlightinthepark

TIMEFORM VIEW:

There's a strong possibility this could turn into a match with a couple of these declared earlier in the week. LIMERICK LEADER had the run of things when bolting up at Sedgefield last week and with that same scenario easy to envisage here, Nick Scolfield's 9-y-o can bring up the hat-trick. Fairlawn Skipper can chase him home should he take his chance.

	67PPP-131 9 12-0 76.2kg
	Martin Keighley	Freddie Keighley (51lb/2kg)
	Enterprisingly ridden when winning on reappearance for the second successive season at Southwell in early-June. Struggled from 9 lb higher next time but left with a simple task when a wide-margin winner at Stratford (17f) recently. Opposable back up 3 lb for that virtual non-event.
2	CONQUER THE BREEZE (IRE) (66)	t	100
	44P-11411 7 11-7 73.0kg
	Adam Nicol	Ryan Mania
	Has been much improved since joining current yard, making it 4 wins from 5 starts in 6-runner event at Perth (2m) when last seen in mid-July, beating the reopposing Garde Des Champs by 10 lengths. Timefigure supported that performance so can pick up from where he left off upped another 8 lb.

	448-43328 10 10-6 66.2kg
	Lucinda Russell & Michael Scudamore	Derek Fox
	Unreliable sort who failed to arrest the slide back hurdling for the first time in over 2 years last month. Likely faces another struggle, though much lower in the weights than when 3rd in 2024 (9 lb) and 4th in 2025 (14 lb) renewals of this race.

3 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

11-10 Duke of Luckley, 11-8 Conquer The Breeze, 15-2 Garde Des Champs

TIMEFORM VIEW:

CONQUER THE BREEZE hasn't looked back since joining current connections and having been freshened up by a 2-month break, Adam Nicol's 7-y-o is fancied to make it 5 wins from his last 6 outings. Duke of Luckley won a virtual non-event at Stratford just over 3 weeks ago and he can chase home the selection with his usual visor reapplied.

Half-brother to 5 winners, including prolific French hurdle/chase winner up to 19f Athena du Berlais and fairly useful 2½m hurdle winner Ladybank. Dam (c116/h115), 2¼m hurdle winner, half-sister to smart hurdler/high-class chaser (2m-21f winner) Mr Mole. Newcomer to note.
2	CAPE WARRIOR (149)	97
	22- 4 11-0 69.9kg
	Micky Hammond Sean Bowen Flat-bred gelding coped well with the test of speed when second of 5 in a Wetherby bumper on debut in March, albeit grossly flattered by his proximity to the winner. Showed similar form when filling same spot over C&D the following month and merits respect, especially with Sean Bowen booked.
3	BACK IN FAVOUR (IRE) (45)	h ★ 100

4	LADY SCARPHIA	93
	5 10-9 67.6kg
	Micky Hammond Sean Quinlan Wings of Eagles mare who is a half-sister to connections' dual bumper winner You Be Lucky Jean. Interesting newcomer, especially if the market speaks in her favour.
5	ARC KUNOICHI (19)	t 91
	5 4 10-7 66.7kg
	Rebecca Menzies Nathan Moscrop Ifraaj filly who displayed some ability when fifth of 9 in a Sedgefield bumper (17f) on recent debut, though the emphasis on speed was probably more in her favour than a few of her more stoutly-bred rivals.
6	ROOHU	88

BETTING FORECAST:

LADY SCARPHIA makes appeal on paper as a half-sister to connections' dual bumper winner You Be Lucky Jean, so she could be up to doing the business on her debut. Going On is another newcomer to note, while Back In Favour sets the standard, though could prove vulnerable if the race develops into a sprint finish.
