Summary: More was expected from X RAYS (5) but while he may not have lived up to expectations, he has raced against stronger and should make a winning debut in a Claimer. CROWDFUNDING (1) and CREW DRAGON (3) look very close on recent form, but the weight turnaround puts the balance in favour of the former. DANELO (10) had his last win with Maxime Guyon up in a Claimer and back together again he should be competitive again.

Summary: SARENZO (1) scored at Senonnes on his latest start in a maiden event last month and can follow up with a claiming rider taking weight off his back. SPRING LAUREL (2) also won on her most recent outing, landing a handicap over this course and distance by a cosy two lengths late last month. She remains a contender despite carrying a penalty. NOVA DU CHENET (7) produced her best performance so far when finishing fourth at Le Mans early last month and holds strong each-way claims. Summary: ZAHARA (2) won at Chantilly in May and she can be forgiven for her last two runs on the PSF at Deauville. She can be competitive back into claiming class today. LIKE LINDY (4) looks like she could be the one that gives the selection the most to think about. She has several placed runs this year and was far from disgraced at Argentan on her latest start 15 days ago. HOLLIE WOOD (9) was a pleasing second on her penultimate start and can not be ignored. TERRA PROXIMA (12) is another to pay attention to and can have a say in proceedings.

Summary: CLEAN BOWLED (3) managed to unseat his jockey when he jumped out of the stalls on his latest start at Craon late last month, and can be forgiven for that. He was a pleasing third at Saint-Cloud on his penultimate start in April and is given the nod here over HUR CAT (2), who has won two of his latest three starts and can once again give a good account of himself. LES TROIS VALLEES (7) has been placed on three of his last four starts and looks solid each-way. HY DREAM (4) is also worthy of attention and can have a say at the business end.
