Summary: Tactics will be crucial in this race. MERIADOC PAULOIS (7) is an all-or-nothing proposition and could either shine or disappoint. MAGIC SYSTEM (8) struggled to settle in when first arriving in the region but has shown a marked improvement since the start of autumn. Ideally positioned at the front, he should lead the opposition alongside MISTRAL D'URZY (5), who won in a sprint finish at Feurs. From the second starting tier, MATCH LOVE (12) is also worth watching.

If he keeps his mind on the job, he can bounce back on his first attempt racing anticlockwise. NORMAND VILLETOT (16) finished sixth in his encouraging return and should improve with that run under his belt. NELSON D'HERMES (14) performed well at a higher level earlier this month and must be respected. NOW AND THEN (15) is comfortable over this course and distance so also has claims.

Summary: The answer could lie with those starting from the second tier, notably MYSTIQUE LOULOU (16), who has been carefully prepared for her return, and MANDARINE (15), who has been faultless since her debut. MONA DU FER (14), claimed this summer, quickly repaid the faith of her new connections and deserves another chance after a two-week break. However, he will need to be wary of JAKABINO (10), who is in excellent form, and KRIS MARTIN (3), who is making up for lost time after a disappointing first half of the year. KRAK D'AZUR (2) has just recorded two wins over shorter distances at this track and will now attempt to prove himself over this more demanding trip.

Summary: GREGOR (12) finished second in a similar race on his return to Borély and looks capable of going one better. However, several rivals are capable of giving him a stern test, notably IMPERATOR D'ELA (10), who is regaining his form, and HERODE DU CORTA (8), who should benefit from two preparatory outings.
