2 Clean Table had not started since August last year. The Maharajah son was well prepared in the debut for his new trainer, but we expect his form to have improved and in this small field he should have a good chance of taking the lead. Once there he is the horse to beat. 4 Mcllroy is a bit hard to predict, but uses to do well right after a layoff so he should be considered early. 3 Moni Lane is not reliable but owns very good capacity if he avoids a mistake. 7 Mr Fantastic has shown great form and comes with two wins in a row.

13 Västerbo ImtheMan has found great form after a long layoff. He is strong and despite this tough triple handicap he is good enough to pass the whole field. 9 Con Padre is of course hard to predict before his ridden debut but he has shown plenty of capacity and speed for this occasion and with a twenty meter lead towards his main rival, he should be considered early. 12 Yuvaraj is also used to tough company and is once again ridden by Jonathan Carre who is a top jockey. 5 Hellacopters faces good conditions and is not bad if he is at his best.

4 Call Out My Name has shown nice resources for this class and been on the podium in four out of five starts. Although he had to do some work on the outside of the leader he was hardly at his best last time. He is fast and strong and after a short layoff he could bounce back. 6 Lightspeed Garbo won in the lead in the last race finishing 14/1000 and Ken Ecce's horse seems clearly promising. 2 Höwings Elly has shown good speed resources in Germany and won the last time she visited Sweden. 7 Eroun Face has shown good capacity.

2 Run Champ Run has shown very good strength for this class. Not at least last time when he was on the outside of the leader and got a tough journey. The four-year-old has a couple of runs under his belt and his form seems to be close to top. 4 Power Of Sand was much improved in the last race and got only defeated by capable Jist On Light Boy. Good for this class, but from this tricky lane he will not have a quick start. 8 Highfive E.M. finished well and looked in good shape in the last race. 7 F.B.I. is used to tougher companies and makes an interesting debut for this trainer.

9 Godfather was extremely good from the front in the last race and scored a top victory in October. Shoes now and needs a run under his belt before the final on December 26th. However, he steps down a lot in class. 8 Remember Me D.E. was not at his best in the last race. His previous performances have been good a bit behind the winner in tough companies. Early contender if improved. 7 Henrik Will has high peaks when he performs at his very best. 4 Amazing Hazel did well in the last race a bit behind the leader and is on the way up.

3 Louis Vuitton won easily finishing 12.4/1000 last time. He is good for this class and faces easier opponents now. Ebbsinge's 4-year-old should have a good chance of scoring the fifth win of his career. 1 Kerie has been matched in quite tough company lately. He owns good speed and certainly gets an offensive start by Ken Ecce. 6 Ebba was strong from outside the leader in the last comeback. Certainly better now. 5 Hessie Quick has earned too little money for this class and is possible too here.
