1 Tabdone galloped at the end in the Swedish debut with some energy left. The mare looked nice otherwise and with that run under her belt she is now ready for victory. 4 Unforgettable A.Y. is in top form. The five-year-old can do it tough and is an early challenger. 2 Bilbao Ace did alright in his comeback in the last race. Good starting position and is one of several horses who can win this race. 7 Panerai was clearly improved in the last race and with a similar performance she is possible here.

5 Önnes Eldner is strong and tough and uses to finish well. Not completely reliable, but without a mistake he will be hard to beat. 6 Guli Kasper is a quick starter and the close favorite for the lead and both of his career wins have come in that position. The horse to beat from the front. 4 Gerda H.L. has found top form of late and even though the mare now faces tougher opposition, she shouldn't be discounted. 1 Villnorsken has had a good seasonal debut and will be even better this time.

5 Icebreaker D.K. is making his first start after a French period. In terms of capacity, the six-year-old is a lot better than his rivals and even though he is not in top form, he will be hard to beat. 10 Mellby Joker was good in the seasonal debut but has been a scratch since then. Barefoot is a plus. Challenges our pick. 8 Zaxton got locked in with energy spared in the last race. Fine form and is good enough to be in the mix. 7 Bettle Hanover was clearly improved in the last race but should be seen as a place bet this time.

10 Moni U.S.A. should be able to open well from this starting position and reach a good position. Great impression in the last race and should have the best chance to win this wide open race. 8 Dropthegloves is about to make his seasonal debut. Several nice performances last year and if he is just close to his top form he can win this race. 6 Illusion Of Joy has the best speed but is far from reliable. Fights for victory without a mistake. 2 Raphael made a strong seasonal debut but was not as good in the last race. Normally in the mix.

7 Villiam Avenue has won six of eight races and is getting better with each start. The seven-year-old is a quick starter and will not be easy to beat if he reaches the front. 9 Secret Bo put in a strong effort in the seasonal debut. He is just as good from behind and one of the better horses in this field. 1 Xanthis Jones has two wins in a row and should not be underestimated from a good starting position. 4 Jagger Mearas galloped on the way to a good result in the last race. Speedy but not reliable and has to be considered without a mistake.
