RACE 1

Going: Good (Good to Firm in places)

A hilly course, galloping in nature. Its right-handed two-mile circuit is laid out in a long oval, with eleven fences and a run-in of around 170 yards. The chase course is on the outside of the hurdles one, but the inside track is often used on the home turn regardless of whether the races are over fences or not. The half-mile home straight is on the rise all the way to the finish and can result in some notably slow-motion finishes, especially on the chase course. Conditions can get extremely testing in midwinter and the exact opposite in drier periods, the course without an artificial watering system.

1 GETONE (IRE) (10) h+t 66
00-63 7 11-4 | 71.7kg

Daisy Hitchins

Robbie David (5lb/2kg)

Showed a bit more second time up over hurdles when third in a novice seller here on stable debut but unlikely to be good enough to win a maiden.

2 GRANPA GER (IRE) (144) 90
00-203225 8 11-4 | 71.7kg

Belinda Clarke

Lee Edwards

Winless in 19 runs though did split a now useful pair at Uttoxeter before typically giving his running when fifth of 13 at Ludlow in November. Remains vulnerable in a maiden, for all this is a particularly thin one.

3 OSCAR JACK (43) s
0 5 11-4 | 71.7kg

Jimmy Frost

Stoutly-bred sort offered little in a Wincanton bumper and hardly a positive that cheekpieces go on for hurdle debut.

4 OUR GUIDE (IRE) (21) (D) 92
15 5 11-4 | 71.7kg

Jamie Snowden

Gavin Sheehan

Made a winning debut in a Galway bumper last October (with now smart stayer Zeus Power back in third). Subsequently sold from J. Conheady for £82,000 and finished with running left (having jumped tentatively) when fifth of 15 at Wetherby on hurdle/stable debut. Likely improver.

Jack Tudor

Sets the standard on her best form (third in Taunton maiden that has produced plenty of winners). Below that level when runner-up at Ludlow last time, but cheekpieces should help, and a bold bid is expected.

OCTOBER HILL sets a fair standard in a weak maiden, and has first-time cheekpieces to boot, though bumper winner Our Guide could be a serious danger if sharper for his hurdling debut.

Keen-going sort who landed a pair of handicap wins over 18.5f at Newton Abbot last summer. Off since finishing a creditable third over 21.5f there in October so much depends on whether he's fully primed after his break.

Maiden ran creditably under a more patient ride (also wore first-time tongue strap) when seventh of 13 here last time, and while he needs to improve for the longer trip to be competitive, that isn't out of the question.

No threat in 2 maidens and a Grade 2 hurdle last season but landed a gamble on return/handicap debut at Chepstow (19.5f) in October before following up at Warwick (21f) a month later. A little bit flat on return from a 5-month break when sixth of 8 here (23f, good) 26 days ago, though.

Miss Amber Jackson-Fennell (7lb/3kg)

Successful on bumper debut (when trained by his owner/rider) and also made a winning start in this sphere when taking 16-runner novice over 2m here last month. Lesser display when only fourth of 5 in a similar contest at Wincanton (21.4f) since, though, and opening mark doesn't look overly lenient.

Hold-up sort who belatedly got off the mark when a ready winner of a 13-runner C&D handicap (good, 4/1) 10 days ago. Lots of to like about the way he travelled there and he can add to his good course record from 6 lb higher mark.

No impact in maiden/novice hurdles this winter but made more of an impact when third of 8 on handicap bow at Hereford (2m, good to soft) last time. That isn't bad form in the context of this race and, having dropped 3 lb since, she has to enter calculations.

5 THE PADSTER (FR) (106) 89

TIMEFORM VIEW:

The vote goes to CELTIC QUEEN, who attracted support ahead of her improved handicap debut third at Hereford and a subsequent 3 lb drop in the weights looks rather generous. Monsun Climate may also take a step forward now pitched into a handicap and is next on the list ahead of Prized Jet, who hasn't shown much for this yard but has slipped to a dangerous mark.
