2 One Night In Paris made her debut for Maria Törnqvist last time out and put in a strong effort from the outside leader. The four-year-old had not raced since November last year and needed that run under his belt, but showed the right attitude straight away. 7 Oregon Boko puts in strong performances every time and shows good strength for the class. 8 Granns Lady has been on the podium in six out of seven starts and put in a strong finish in the last V75 race. 5 Gallo Jet kept up the pace well in a tough Breeders' Crown race last time - easier now.

6 Ready Creation has started promisingly for Lövdal with podium finishes in four out of six starts so far. Was brave from outside the leader last time second up and showed that he had improved by a run under his belt. 3 Buckbeak will compete with a bike and barefoot for the first time. Will also run with ear plugs. 12 Oh Mister Alki was a weak favorite in the last race. Is good for his class and normally an early choice. Needs a bit of a luck from this position. 5 Rigolletto Tooma galloped over the home stretch in the last race but got a useful run under his belt.

1 Global Good News is now stepping down in class and is tough for this class. Nice task but this number could be tricky. Our winner. 9 My Lady Emma looked nice when she led every meter in the last race. 2 Jiovanha Falkone has started well and shown good starting speed in the circular start. Can certainly open fast behind the gate too. 11 Hybrida has the right attitude and held strongly from the lead in the last race despite a tough start.

1 Follow Him owns very high capacity for this class and is now making an exciting debut for a new trainer. The Italian-born four-year-old has won five out of nine starts and is well prepared for this debut for a new trainer. 8 Fammisognare won with plenty of energy left in the last race and the Italian winning machine can both start and finish strongly. 5 Fortebraccio Font has very high potential for this class but has not convinced at all lately. 2 Irwin Zet is capable for this class and will compete barefoot now!

7 Jackpot Mearas put in a top effort during the Elitloppet weekend but could not challenge Savastano anyway. Front lane now and he should have a good chance to reach the front and once in the lead he is the horse to beat. 1 Savastano was heroic during the Elitloppet weekend when he raced barefoot. He is aiming for the Jubileumspokalen in August but his last effort was mediocre. 12 Eagle Rock has shown good capacity for Redén. The seven-year-old is undefeated but it will be tough to continue the winning streak here. 5 Fly Equos Jet is tough and matched in good fields.

3 Lizmark has not had the success expected but has been hardened in tough situations for a long time and is now stepping down in class even though it is a lane ladder where he has earned less money. 8 Brilliant Kid is incredibly quick starter when attack and is also sensible within his money. The form is good and if he finds his way to the front he will be very successful. 11 Kent's Marre has started a bit sporadically and didn't get the style he needed last time. There is potential and the stable is in on the way up form. 14 Gourmet Brodde is strong and strong and can do it tough.
