11 Elmer Wibb won from the lead in the last run. Three starts ago, he also showed that he can stand a tougher trip when he won despite being outside the leader during the last lap. Overall, it is a horse that has proven that he is versatile. Despite these handicaps he has the highest chance of victory. 7 Gibson Brick has a strong sprint and if with some racing luck the second win in a row could be a fact. 1 Domino Vendil is developing well and could lead this throughout with this perfect lane.

RANK

2 Må Super has made four starts for the new trainer and has been second or third in all of them. Last time she galloped from the start, but showed good form when, despite the mistake, she was not far from victory. Good chance to find the lead here and once there she is the horse to beat. 8 Gabriella Godiva doesn't always show the right attitude, but has very good speed and can win this race when she is at her best. 6 Olivia CH gallops a lot, but without a mistake she is good enough to win this regardless the journey.

RANK

5 Global Above All scored a couple of convincing victories last autumn, but has not had the same success against tougher opponents since then. He showed good form last time and against easier horses he should have a good chance of finding his way back to the winning track. 11 Oskar Run has, just like our winner, been matched in the V75. The seven-year-old has a strong final lap and, despite the draw, he is the main challenger. 4 Mission Beach should not be overlooked completely from behind the leader.

RANK

14 Global Easy Rider has a tough starting number, but the four-year-old is used to tougher company than this and has put in strong efforts lately. Is tough enough to round them all. 11 Jagger Mearas has good capacity, but he had galloped in recent starts. Down in class and this driver is an advantage too. 5 Ytowns Dragon has put in great performances so far. 1 Global Excitement has shown good speed, but he has not been competing for a while.

8 Kipling River is strong and can do it tough when required, just like last time when he got a tough run from outside the leader. 11 Quick Run is in top form and put in a strong finish in the V75 last time. Early challenger for the victory but needs some racing luck. 5 Lion Brodde has high capacity, a race under his belt and is ideally drawn. 6 Swosh is in good shape and can finish fast in case of quick pace.

3 Ajlexes Hans put in a good effort last time, but he has not been as good as when he lined up the victories in impressive style last year. He has now been away for just over a month but is certainly well prepared. 1 Havannah Line comes from a strong win and has earned the least money in this lane ladder, but this number is interesting as she has put in her very best races in the lead. 6 Chic was second despite a big early mistake last time and was improved a lot directly for the new trainer. 5 Captain As has good skills when he keeps calm. Should not be overlooked.
