3 Lozano Di Quattro did well already as a 4-year-old, but got his real breakthrough last year as a 5-year-old. People are already talking about the bigger races in Sweden this year. Seasonal debut here and might need this race. Faces quite easy opponents though and has top chance to lead this from start to finish. 9 Gloster Gladiator is not in the same great form as when he won a V75 race last autumn in 1.12.9a/2140. However, it should be good enough to finish second here. 6 Jank Summerland is very up and down, but could take a trio place on a good day. 1 Iwan Boko will compete barefoot and should get a nice trip on the inside.

14 Blomsterprinsen is a classy 5-year-old who qualified for both the Norwegian and Swedish Kriteriet and the Derby. However, he did not have much success in these, which means that he is still in a low class. With the right journey, he should be seen with a good chance again. 6 Wivar has not shown the same class as our pick but should be considered early anyway in this company. Could find the lead here and is the main challenger. 4 Eskils Balder is more strong than speedy - high pace would be an advantage. 13 Faks Odin NO is fast enough to defeat many opponents here.

4 Id Diamant is a promising horse who trainer Steinseth predicts that she will compete in the bigger races later this year. Will go for the lead and if she manages to get there, she will not be easy to defeat. 7 Sara JE was very convincing in her debut for Crebas when she easily won in 1.13.6a/1609 meters. She is probably at her best with the right defensive trip from behind and with a journey like that, she can once again defeat all opponents here. 6 Nascar can certainly do better than shown so far. 1 Marielle Cape faces tougher opponents now, but will certainly get a nice trip with this lane.

8 Ei Lita HM comes from victory and has started the year promisingly. She had a strong finish and beat Frøyde at the finish line last time and is twenty meters better towards him now. Also unbeaten after three starts at Färjestad. 4 Vidarson VA finished fast over the home stretch last time and was not empty. Better driver now and quick starter. If he could save the speed, he won't be easy to beat in the end. 3 Storm Annsгал has won four times in his career but can do even better. Is a bit tricky every now and then, but has the capacity to challenge. 7 Järvsö Karin is in good form and set a new record last time.

5 Vision Of Gideon was not at his best last time, but possibly did not like the surface then. Now he has quickly reloaded and comes out over a more suitable distance, barefoot and quite easy opposition. He is matched in tough V75 races and should normally have a good chance to win a race like this. Banker. 2 Anse Macquereau has very high capacity and this distance is the right one. He has, however, been a scratch, but despite that he has two run under his belt now. 7 Ove Palema fought strongly against tough horses last time. This distance is new, but he has good capacity for this class. 1 Leroy Sane has started promisingly and will get a nice trip on the inside.

6 Honey Dun Girl has previously been at her best in the front, but last time she showed that she is good from behind too. Will now go for the lead though. She could be difficult to reach then on a fast track. 1 Hard Center can open fast and will certainly get a nice trip on the back of the leader/third inside. From there he should be followed with a run under his belt. 11 Wishful Order has not started for a long time and may need the race. He needs some racing luck but should still be counted on his capacity. 5 Belgique makes his seasonal debut but has been matched in the V75.
