- 7. PETITE THEYSS - Won on her last start over 3800m in a claiming chase at Moulins on May 25th. Ought to be involved in the shake-up
- 8. MUSISTAR - Fair effort to be 5th in a Class 4 chase at Haras Du Pin over 3700m on May 24th. Capable of being competitive

Summary: MORRA (3) should strip fitter for her recent return, where she ran a pleasing race to finish third in a Class 3 hurdle last month. A winner over fences in October last year, she sets the standard. MUSISTAR (8) looks the main danger after a respectable fifth-place finish in a Class 4 chase at Haras Du Pin in late May and should be capable of building on that effort. STAR GAZER (4) appeals as a solid each-way option, particularly if reproducing the form she showed two starts ago. PETITE THEYSS (7) is another worthy of consideration.

He was blow par recently but is best judged on a fourth on his penultimate start at Royan in early May. - 10. NORTON SPORT - Unraced gelding by Born To Sea, the dam won 5 races over jumps. One to monitor in the betting for any market interest
- 11. NEVEU EN BLEU - Gelding by Jeu St Eloi, the dam was placed a few times on the flat. From a respected trainer that will have this gelding nicely tuned

Summary: SOMMERKONIG (1) showed improvement when switched to hurdles on his third career start, finishing a promising third at this track in April. With further progress likely, he gets the vote. MOSSDAM (5) looks the main danger. He is well bred, with his dam a three-time winner, and any market support would be significant. NALKO DES MOTTES (7) has already shown ability over hurdles and holds solid each-way claims. NEVEU EN BLEU (11) is an interesting newcomer who warrants respect if attracting positive support in the betting.

- 16. FORLIA DU FOUQUET - Filly by For Fun, the dam won 2 races over jumps. Stable runners are seen to better effect after a run or two and she does not appeal as a first time out winner

Summary: SETTE BELLO (1) acquitted himself well enough at Auteuil on his last run in a Class 3 hurdle late last month when he was fifth. In calmer waters today he can get off the mark. The main danger could be AIGLE NOIR (2), who improved to be third at this track over hurdles on June 1st and can be involved. CASTEVA DU GREMAT (15) was a tad below par last time but if emulating his fourth in December on debut over hurdles he can not be ignored. GEMMA DODVILLE (9) has a nice profile and is one to consider on debut.

LIEN DU CHOEUR (4) looks the main danger after a convincing success over this course and distance last time out and should remain highly competitive despite the rise in class. KONJAC WOOD (14) is another to keep onside and cannot be ruled out, while RISK DU BRIZAIS (3) also merits consideration and completes the shortlist.

Summary: JOUR POLAIRE (2) is difficult to oppose after a decisive success in a Listed hurdle at Auteuil last month. A repeat of that performance should make him hard to beat. HAMANDIO (1) looks the main danger despite finishing five lengths behind the selection in second when they met last time. Better weight terms could help him narrow the gap. LASCAR D'AIRY (13) is another to consider. With a favourable racing weight. MOUNT ANGEL (11), who has recent placed form at this track, appeals as the best of the rest.
