3 Lynet Mcqueen has done really well so far for Frode Hamre. He has scored three wins in a row and not been empty. The three-year-old is a quick starter and has a good chance of finding the lead. Once in that position he is hard to beat. 9 Oh U. Handsomeboy is clearly doing well and was just closely defeated from the lead as fourth in the last race. Two runs under his belt after eight weeks of break and his form should be fine. American bike. 1 Euro S.L. has a perfect lane. 11 Mister Mustache has also shown good skills so far.

2 Tayno B.B. has shown great form for a long time. Two starts back against really good horses and last time after a short layoff. Should be even better this time and from a perfect starting position he is guaranteed a good position. Good chance. 4 Yukon Töll is a winning machine who does well most of the time. Can do it tough and should be in the fight. 10 Vincent Sun has two runs under his belt after a long break. Possible but needs some racing luck. 5 Jayden De Joudes has made a couple of starts for Robert Bergh and is on the way up.

4 Getting Rid Of scored a good win in the last race and that was the first of his career. Good draw again and could reach the front - from there he will be hard to beat. 5 Van Gogh O. was second behind our pick in the last race and did well from the outside. However, he was not close to challenging for the win and as it looks like he will get a tougher journey again here. 2 A.V.'s King Street was not at his best in the last race from the lead, but was even better before that. 10 Oksamit W.H. is gifted and was nice barefoot last time. Difficult lane.

10 Baias has impressed a lot lately and won the last race despite not trotting perfectly. Tough task here of course, but the horse is strong and should have a good chance anyway. 6 Ness Tjo Tyr is getting stronger and stronger and has to be considered early for Björn Steine. 5 Tordenskjold does well most of the time and is 20 meter ahead of Baias who has not earned much more money. 7 Alm Kevin owns good speed and could become dangerous with the right trip.

3 Weekend Vibe has impressed a lot for this trainer and won a Norwegian V75 final two starts back. Faces good opponents but from the lead he is still the horse to beat in an open race. 5 Ace Wibb got defeated last time but was very brave. Prefers to run front and should be in the fight for victory. 6 Clodrique is in top form and could pass all opponents here. 1 Monsieur Chocolat finds it hard to hold the lead but is an early choice if it works out.

7 Undinia has very good capacity and doesn't seem to waste any energy. She could take the lead after a while, but even from outside the leader the chances of winning are very high. 4 Unica SLM looked very nice in the last race but never got a real chance. She can open quickly, but is also fast with the right trip from behind. 5 Skylight comes from wins in a heat and final in the Norwegian Derby for fillies and mares. 1 Las Vega has good skills, but is up and down.

2 Bicc's Tobee never had a real chance in the last Swedish Championships but did alright. He prefers to run in the lead where he has scored seven wins in eight starts. Good chance from the front. 1 Mister Hercules did brilliantly after an early mistake in the last race. Early challenger even if this number could be tricky. 3 Global Etalon was third in the last Swedish Championships under the saddle. Showed high capacity in several major races during this season. Could be dangerous. 6 Icebreaker D.K. gets better and better. Possible but needs some racing luck.
