He is preferred ahead of KLIFF BERE (4), who has been running in Listed events on his latest three outings. With a third at Craon in early September, the best of them. CASSIUS (1) is top-rated and will be expected to give a good account of himself. PENTAOUR (2) is also worth a mention.

Summary: IKKO (1) has been in good form recently with a win at Fontainebleau in October, and he followed up with a decent second at Deauville on the PSF in a handicap 11 days ago. He can be rewarded for his consistency. MICHONNE (3) looks like the main threat after a win at Niort in October in a conditions race.
