2 Egyptian Kronos faced a couple of tough opponents in his debut but did definitely well from the outside of the leader. With that run under his belt, the blue-blooded five-year-old could have been improved. 3 Steady Countess has put in nice performances so far in Germany. Sprinted brilliantly in the last race. 7 Los Del Rio Sisu has scored two strong second spots. 4 Rusa Tooma will face tougher opposition now but was good in the last race, finishing second.

1 Orso Nero Trot has put in two nice performances. Won from the lead and was second from outside the leader. A good starting position should mean a good position. Has good capacity. 4 Olle Sting is undefeated but has got a difficult starting position. Is not the biggest horse, but has the right attitude. 7 You Bow To No One is not Sjöström's pick but he is experienced. 5 Sherri Se won in the debut. Tougher opponents this time.

1 Jobspost is very nice and has put in good performances most of the time. Has a couple of fast-starting opponents outside him, but can get off to a good start himself too. Good chance as long as he doesn't get locked in. 6 Västerbo Blizzard did well in the last race in a slightly easier field. Tougher now, but is an early contender in this company too. 4 No Talking You gave up from outside the leader in the last race. Can do better. 5 Oracle Vixi has good speed but this distance is a question mark. Possible.

5 InterGalactic V.W. does not always trot well, but has good ability. Normally good enough to win this. 9 Marjons Mio put in a couple of really sharp performances as a 3-year-old and was out and has been matched in tough companies. Now going down a lot in class, but at the same time the horse meets older opponents and resumes from a spell. Still early choice. 7 Bravo Alicia does well most of the time and has a run under her belt after a long break. 6 Away is used to win and faces nice conditions.

7 Lovely Pace is a quick starter and has shown great capacity. Tougher opponents in the last race but did alright a bit behind the leader. Towards the lead here? In that position she is the horse to beat. 11 Garment Chic was good as a 3-year-old without winning. Coming back after a layoff now and could use that run under her belt. She has good skills. 10 Princessup is not reliable at all but has a lot of speed. 4 Glory Forever scored a good win in the last race, tougher this time.

8 Jennifer Sisu showed very high peaks last year, including a second spot behind Clarissa in the European Championships for mares. She should have a good chance straight away in this seasonal debut. 6 Filippa B.J. has not really reached her previous level after a French trip. However, the horse has the capacity to win this race. Sprinted improved in the last race. 1 Asap Annie has a perfect starting position and owns good speed. 3 Xanthis Ibiza should be on the way up with two runs under her belt.

4 Forever Yours is a really nice horse who has started to show what he is capable of. Can open fast and is too good for this low class. 3 Forget It Not competed in a V75-final in the last race. Favorite for the lead. 5 Yippee Ki Yay has shown times that the others haven't been close to. Hasn't started for a long time though. Can open fast and this distance should be an advantage. 10 Filip Code is good, but this number over the short distance is tough.

4 Conrads Palle is our pick in an almost impossible ridden race. The horse is making his debut under the saddle, but has been matched in the V75. 11 Eagle Rock also makes his debut under the saddle. Has shown great form lately and with the talented Iina Aho in the saddle he has to be considered. 9 Daddy Pop has been improved under the saddle and has four wins in a row. However, he has met easier opponents than these. 2 Billionaire Face has won his last three ridden races.

6 The Little Plug decided after a really tough journey in the last race. Is on the way up and our pick in an open race. 8 Vigilante has been heavily backed so far, like so many other Nurmos trained horses. Has done alright, but not been as impressive as when he scored an outstanding win in his debut. 12 Gigolo D'Inverne was strong in the last race. This lane is poor. 4 Chardonnay opened quickly last time and will certainly get a good position.
