8 Popeye Tooma is now coming back after a long competition break and even if he might need this race, we still think he will defeat these opponents. Our pick. 9 From The Hip won three races last year and in different ways. Hasn't started since November, but is still the main challenger. 6 Ajlexes Tabberas had some energy left last time in his comeback. Better with that run under his belt and is certainly in the mix here. 3 Black Up did not convince last time. Can do better than that, but is primarily a place bid.

8 Guldhagens Oscar returns after a break. The form is of course difficult to predict, but he should have the greatest chance of winning even if he is not at his best yet. Poor lane too. 11 Guli Rufus showed top form last time when the four-year-old won in a very strong way. Goes for second straight. 3 BW Zorro galloped suddenly in the last run with one lap to go. Is really god when he is at his best. 7 Monster Mohikan has not raced for a while. Quick starter and can lead the race for a long time.

3 Zaxton is making his seasonal debut and is certainly not at his best yet, but this is a 4-year-old who has met much tougher opponents than these. Should have top chance to win here. 9 Woodcutter has three run under his belt after a long break and is starting to approach top form. Main challenger to our pick. 1 Ares has not competed since December. Quick starter and could reach the back of the leader. Will sprint fast if finding room in time. 2 Superior Bro followed well last time after a tough journey. Nice starting lane and should be considered behind the favorite.
