3 Kim Peek impressed under the saddle two starts back and won in completely superior style. He faces different opposition now, but has a perfect task with a handicap for the main rivals. Our pick. 9 First One Diamond is the main challenger. The horse has impressed under the saddle but this 40 meter handicap is not easy. 4 Mago Volante is undefeated without a mistake in this discipline after four starts. 11 Gold du Val returns after a long layoff.

4 Henessi Joyride got a tough journey on the outside of the leader to score the last win. Good chance here with the right journey. 7 Ontario is a promising 4-year-old who comes from a Stochampionatet heat. Faces nice conditions here and fights for victory. 2 Tactic Lane has been good so far this year. Has done really well from the front but may find it hard to get there now. Has to be considered regardless. 6 Moni Talks has done really well in the last two starts against easier opponents.

6 Langli has been up an down, but shown really good capacity. Could take the lead, but regardless of the course of the race the horse should have a good chance in an open race. 1 Chico Lane is a quick starter, and driver Gustav Johansson can choose the tactical plan. Has to be considered. 9 Freelader is very capable and has two wins in a row now after a long layoff. 10 Charlie T.T. owns nice speed resources. Gets a defensive trip from behind but could be dangerous at last.
