RACE 1

HADWINS NOVICES' HURDLE (4) 4yo+ £7,500 2¾m31y (4450 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft

Left handed, tight. Only six fences to a circuit means little emphasis on jumping and, whilst the last few come in quick succession and can result in mistakes, the attrition rate is one of the lowest in the country. Run-in of half a mile from the last fence is the longest in the country and, unsurprisingly, the lead changes hands from the last more than would normally be expected, be it due to horses idling or tiring after being sent for home too soon.

Pace Information: Very Weak

	33/78-31 6 11-7   73.0kg
	James Moffatt		Charlotte Jones
	Progressive 6-y-o who reaped the benefit of his encouraging reappearance third in May when running out a clear-cut winner of a C&D maiden 22 days ago. No surprise to see him very competitive again under a penalty.
2	JYSUIS (FR) (35)	h		80
	685094-P9 6 11-0   69.9kg
	Simon West		Bruce Lynn

3	SANG POUR SANG (FR) (22)	t		88
	631F55-63 5 11-0   69.9kg
	Sam England		Jonathan England
	Fairly useful hurdler/chaser in France, winning over fences last autumn and he stepped up on his stable debut effort when third of 5 in handicap chase at this course (25.5f, heavy) 22 days ago. No surprise to see him thereabouts back over smaller obstacles.
4	CROSS OF REDMOOR (IRE) (20)			75

	Lizzie Quinlan		Sean Quinlan
	Maiden Irish pointer (0-9) and low-key start under Rules when pulled up in novice hurdle at this course (17.2f, soft) 20 days ago, outpaced before 3 out. Step up in trip should suit on pedigree.
5	KALO ATHENA (IRE) (22)	t		80
	6P-6P 6 10-7   66.7kg
	James Moffatt		Leah Noreci (10lb/5kg)
	Dual point winner who showed a bit when midfield only start in bumpers at Carlisle (17.1f) in November. Yet to pull up any trees in trio of hurdle starts this year though, and fitting of a tongue tie needs to have a positive effect now. Best watched.
6	MIGHTY FLEUR (100) (BF)			96
	2/323- 5 10-7   66.7kg
	Mickey Bowen		Richard Patrick
	Fairly useful form shown in bumpers and she made a promising start in this sphere after 5 months off when third of 5 in mares' maiden at Newton Abbot (21.6f, good) in April. Rates a likely improver with that under her belt back from another break and she's shortlisted.
7	FIRST EVER (IRE) (54)	t		81
	8 4 10-2   64.4kg
	Ben Haslam		Richie McLernon
	Placed on second of 2 starts in Irish points but last of 8 on hurdle debut here (17.2f) in May. A tongue strap is added this time and this increase in trip entitled to suit but she's probably more of a longer-term project.

TIMEFORM VIEW:
MIGHTY FLEUR confirmed the promise of her bumper exploits when finishing a good third in a mares' maiden on hurdles debut at Newton Abbot back in April and, returning to action with her yard in good form, she appeals as the type to build on that effort and make a bold bid. Facile C&D scorer Caughtinyourtrance rates the chief threat despite conceding plenty of weight to the selection. Sang Pour Sang isn't out of things either.

Tongue tie applied and fancied to be involved (has had a wind op).	Peter Kavanagh

TIMEFORM VIEW:
Cases can be made for several, but it could be worth taking a chance on ARCTIC FOX, who has only a handful starts in this sphere to her name and Martin Todhunter's 9-y-o can cash in on a much-reduced mark with a visor applied for the first time for current connections. It's slightly disconcerting that Hope Hill has had a wind op since his Bangor victory 6 weeks ago, but he heads up the dangers nonetheless, ahead of Jlow and stable-switcher Ingennio.

	4064174-4 9 12-0   76.2kg Tom Lacey Mrs Izzie Hill (7lb/3kg) Won a female amateur jockeys' handicap under this rider here (heavy) in 2023. Has ran right up to that form this year, winning at Taunton in February (soft) but unsuited by a steady gallop at Newton Abbot (good) last month. Could be interesting faced with more testing conditions/stronger gallop.
2	MISS MAVERICK (20)		98
	3PP5-1132 8 11-12   75.3kg Gary Hanmer Lilly Pinchin Better than ever this season following a quickfire double at Hexham/Utttoxeter (fourth course win) and has only enhanced her reputation in defeat subsequently, again nearly burning off her rivals from the front over C&D 20 days ago. Should go well again.
3	ASHINGTON (20) (CD)	v	90
	86150-777 10 11-3   71.2kg Mark Walford Miss Becky Smith Won this race in 2024 (off 2 lb lower) but hasn't been firing in either code in recent months, well held over hurdles when unsuited by the drop in trip at Utttoxeter (15.8f) prior to being ridden too aggressively back on the Flat earlier this month. Only of interest if market hints at a revival.
4	ELOGIO (IRE) (327) (D, BF)	s+t	95
	65178/554- 6 11-3   71.2kg Lizzie Quinlan Isabelle Ryder (7lb/3kg) Winner of only 1 of 9 starts in handicaps (victory came for previous connections) and was unable to justify support on third start for Lizzie Quinlan when fourth in a 22f handicap here in August, went in snatches. Drops in trip on return from a break (gelded in the interim) but needs to improve.
5	BITTALEMON (20) (CD)	s	95
	451 4 11-0   69.9kg James Moffatt Charlotte Jones Fair 1½m Flat winner for William Haggas and has improved with each start in novice company at this track, responding well to pressure to win over C&D (soft) last month, for all she was aided by the weak finish of the favourite. Low mileage and could step forward again now handicapping.
6	BOOK OF SECRETS (IRE) (22)	h	99
	2142/53-32 7 10-12   68.9kg James Moffatt Leah Noreci (10lb/5kg) Promising effort in first-time hood when third behind Fiveonefive here last year. Plenty to like about his reappearance third at Hexham and proved better than ever when an unfortunate second to Saligo Bay over C&D (heavy) last month (rider mistook position of winning post). One to be interested in.
7	WINDS OF WINTER (IRE) (16) (CD)		98
	5323-4112 7 10-12   68.9kg George Bewley Miss Thomasina Eyston (7lb/3kg) Off the mark in a 12-runner selling handicap at Cartmel (form franked) and followed up easily on debut for current connections at Hexham (16.2f) prior to a career-best effort in defeat (upped in grade) when second at Perth earlier this month. In fine heart but may need to improve again to win this.
8	CALEVADE (IRE) (22) (CD)	s	95
	24P6/131-9 9 10-11   68.5kg Ben Haslam Harriet Tucker (7lb/3kg) 4-time C&D winner blew out on return from 9 months off (had won the previous two renewals of the race) when well beaten in the C&D handicap won by Saligo Bay last month. Fine course record overall but has something to prove on the back of most recent efforts.
9	EXPELLIARMUS (IRE) (56)	s	93
	374/7-6 5 10-10   68.0kg Ben Haslam Alice Stevens (5lb/2kg) Fair maiden on Flat for Joseph O'Brien and ran her best race over hurdles on handicap debut with cheekpieces fitted on final run for yard. Rusty on first start for Ben Haslam when last in a 6-runner C&D handicap in May. Needs to leave that well behind but worth a market check with headgear back on.

10	ZUCAYAN (FR) (46)	t	95
	F63326-15 8 10-10   68.0kg Fergal O'Brien  Enhanced excellent Ludlow record (all three career wins have come at the track) when winning an 8-runner handicap in May but reportedly made a respiratory noise when running one of his lesser races at Southwell the following month. Given a short break but has a bit to find even if bouncing back.	Fern O'Brien (5lb/2kg)
11	SALIGO BAY (IRE) (22) (CD)	 	100
	7/235657-1 7 10-9   67.6kg Sam England In fine heart on the Flat prior to capitalising on a much-reduced mark back over hurdles, landing a C&D handicap by a neck from Book of Secrets, for all he had luck on his side (rider of runner-up mistook winning post). That looks strong form for the grade and he has solid claims once again.	Miss Heidi Palin (7lb/3kg)
12	BOBBY'S FORTUNE (IRE) (44)		98
	6/P494P6-1 6 10-5   65.8kg Evan Williams Duly built on promise shown earlier in the year when showing much improved form to decisively win a 7-runner handicap hurdle at Ffos Las (15.8f, good to soft) 44 days ago, overcoming a pace bias in the process. Travelled well that day and should cope with this sharper track. One to consider.	Isabel Williams

BETTING FORECAST:

9-2 Miss Maverick, 11-2 Bittalemon, 6-1 Book of Secrets, 13-2 Saligo Bay, 9-1 Bobby's Fortune, 10-1 Winds of Winter, 12-1 Luttrell Lad, 20-1 Calevade, 20-1 Zucayan, 25-1 Elogio, 66-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

SALIGO BAY defeated Book of Secrets in a close and controversial finish over C&D last month and from the same terms he is taken to confirm that form in an open-looking handicap. Miss Maverick could prove the main threat to both, the sharp nature of this track so well-suited to her front-running style. Of the rest, Luttrell Lad is 1 lb lower than when landing a similar race in heavy ground here in 2023 and would be of interest if the worst of the forecast rain arrives.

Sold for £14,000 and better than ever for current connections when narrowly denied in a 22f handicap at his track. That effort may have left its mark at Hexham last time but still has a bit to find on these terms. Alan Doyle (5lb/2kg)
3	IMPERIAL DATA (IRE) (20) (CD)	s+t	98
	48724-453 8 11-5   72.1kg Rebecca Menzies Latest win came over this C&D (off 7 lb lower) last May but has held his form from higher marks this season, not helped by an untimely blunder when a distant third (finished well behind Go Go Chicago) over C&D last month. Ought to be competitive with tongue strap refitted. Richie McLernon
4	GO GO CHICAGO (IRE) (20) (BF)		99
	1372-12 8 11-5   72.1kg Ruth Jefferson Lightly-raced for his age but has twice been successful from 6 starts and showed improved form when runner-up over C&D (soft) 20 days ago, jumped fluently and rallied well near finish (in front again stride after line). Solid claims again and won't be inconvenience by any rainfall (should stay 3m). Jamie Hamilton

	323317-43 8 11-4   71.7kg Rebecca Menzies Back to winning ways in a 10-runner handicap at Musselburgh (19.8f) in February but hasn't threatened from higher marks subsequently, failed to improve for the application of a tongue strap (retained) when third over C&D behind Evenwood Sonofagun in May. May need further respite from handicapper. Nathan Moscrop
6	AL SAYAH (43)	s	95
	54/112-112 5 11-3   71.2kg Neil Mulholland Landed a hat-trick across both codes last year and has resumed progress this season, nearly landing another hat-trick when a narrow runner-up at Bangor (19.6f) 43 days ago. The one that beat her has let the form down subsequently and while in fine heart, this is much more competitive. Conor O'Farrell
7	WUDYA (IRE) (15)	s+t	99
	235172-P1 6 10-13   69.4kg Joel Parkinson & Sue Smith Maiden hurdle winner for Gordon Elliott (sold for only 7,500 gns) but was clearly all wrong when pulled-up on sole outing for Tjade Collier at Aintree in May. Bounced right back to form to make a successful stable debut at Bangor (not the strongest race for the grade). Respected up in trip. Peter Kavanagh
8	HURRICANE ALI (IRE) (20)		91
	38404-346 9 10-12   68.9kg James Moffatt Best run for current connections came when a close third in this race last July though he hasn't shown that sort of form on his most recent hurdles starts, for all he was unsuited by the drop into a competitive 17f handicap here last time. Better off at this trip but has a bit to prove at present. Leah Noreci (10lb/5kg)
9	STARLYTE (IRE) (55)	s+t	96

Remains to be seen if a breathing operation to spark a return to form. Joshua Thompson (7lb/3kg)
12	YOU SOME GIRL (IRE) (120)	h+t	97
	2111245- 8 10-7   66.7kg Rebecca Menzies Transformed by the refitting of a hood when completing a hat-trick last year and has held her form well, shaping better than her finishing position when fifth in a 15-runner handicap at Musselburgh in March, made eye-catching ground from poor position. Respected if ready to roll after a break. Henry Brooke
13	EVENWOOD SONOFAGUN (IRE) (15) (CD)	s+t	98

	04FP8-842 9 10-5   65.8kg James Moffatt Course winner (25.4f) has shaped with encouragement on all three starts this season and continues to be given a chance by the handicapper. Needs a test of stamina and could be interesting if significant rain arrives. Charlotte Jones

14 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

9-2 Go Go Chicago, 11-2 Wudya, 15-2 Al Sayah, 8-1 Evenwood Sonofagun, 11-1 Harper Valley, 12-1 Imperial Data, 14-1 You Some Girl, 18-1 Well Educated, 20-1 Our Sam, 20-1 Starlyte, 28-1 City Derby, 33-1 Wbee, 33-1 Sea The Clouds, 33-1 Hurricane Ali

TIMEFORM VIEW:

GO GO CHICAGO is very low mileage for his age and was better than ever when runner-up over this C&D on soft ground last month. He has solid claims to land a third victory in only 7 starts and may take this at the expense of Wudya who travelled strongly when making a successful stable debut earlier this month and remains of interest stepped up in trip, while Our Sam is capable of winning from this sort of mark and could be dangerous if the ground becomes testing.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

1. GO GO CHICAGO 2. WUDYA 3. OUR SAM

RACE 5

WINDERMERE SCHOOL HANDICAP CHASE (4) 4yo+ (Rated 0-120) £8,650 2m5f34y (4260 Metres)

Going: Good to Soft

Left handed, tight. Only six fences to a circuit means little emphasis on jumping and, whilst the last few come in quick succession and can result in mistakes, the attrition rate is one of the lowest in the country. Run-in of half a mile from the last fence is the longest in the country and, unsurprisingly, the lead changes hands from the last more than would normally be expected, be it due to horses idling or tiring after being sent for home too soon.

Pace Information: Weak

1	DO NO WRONG (IRE) (20) (CD) 2203F2-19 9 12-0   76.2kg  Justin Landy Theo Gillard Point winner in May and looked better than ever back under Rules when scoring easily at Southwell (24.3f, good) in June. Stiff task from out of the weights in Summer Cup at Uttoxeter 20 days ago, so no surprise to see him bounce back returned to this level.	93
2	CLOUGHROE (IRE) (22) (CD) s+t  27705-221 7 11-10   74.4kg  Paul John Gilligan, Ireland Jack G. Gilligan (5lb/2kg) Confirmed previous promise over fences when opening his account in novice handicap chase at this C&D (heavy) 22 days ago, all out having kicked on home turn. Could make another bold bid now that he's up and running.	95
3	BENY NAHAR ROAD (IRE) (27) (BF) h+t 753F1-312 6 11-7   73.0kg  Henry Hogarth Jamie Hamilton Has been going the right way over fences, making it 2 wins from 3 starts when scoring at Southwell in June. Didn't seem as well suited by more positive tactics when second of 4 at Hexham (15.6f, good) last time, but could get back on the up over this longer trip.	97
4	CUZCO DU MATHAN (FR) (54) (C) v 815/6121-4 7 11-6   72.6kg  James Moffatt Charlotte Jones Course regular who won a brace of handicaps at this track (both at 17.3f) in a 4-race campaign in 2024/25. After 9 months off, respectable fourth of 6 here (soft) in May and he's likely to be sharper for that run. Enters calculations back down in grade.	95
5	NO BUT I WILL (16) (BF) b  0PP42P-23 8 11-5   72.1kg  Robbie Llewellyn Charlie Price (3lb/1kg) Not straightforward and hasn't won since chase debut, but made it back-to-back placed efforts this season when third at Perth (20.1f, good to soft) 16 days ago, despite early mistakes. Capable of getting involved, though others still more persuasive.	96
6	DALYOTIN (FR) (54) (D) v+t P/P 9 11-4   71.7kg  Rebecca Menzies Nathan Moscrop Doubled his tally over fences when winning at Carlisle (20f, good) in April 2023. However, pulled up in France next time and following an almost 2-year absence he offered little at this C&D (soft) in May. Others preferred.	95
7	SEAN OG (IRE) (22) (CD)  2614P-341 7 11-2   70.8kg  Dianne Sayer Henry Brooke Successful 3 times here last season and built on recent promise when recording another C&D victory 22 days ago, scoring by 17 lengths on heavy going. This is tougher up 8 lb but he could go well again at this venue.	96
8	RIVER OF JOY (70)  100 511P/3-1 8 11-1   70.3kg  Mickey Bowen Richard Patrick Bumper winner who landed a double in novice hurdles in 2023. Pulled up on handicap debut and then off 20 months, but good third at Ffos Las on return before making an impressive winning chase debut at Hexham (24.2f, good to soft) in May. Leading contender.
9	HIGH MOON (27) s+t  54F53-322 10 10-13   69.4kg  Rebecca Menzies Richie McLernon Over 2 years since last win and often flatters to deceive, again finding less than looked likely when runner-up at Hexham (20.1f, good) last month. Could be in the mix but may just prove vulnerable to his younger rivals.	94
10	VROOMOZ EILE (IRE) (56) h  831-6 6 10-10   68.0kg  James Moffatt Alan Doyle (5lb/2kg) Maiden Irish pointer but off the mark at third attempt over hurdles in males' novice at Carlisle (19.3f, soft) in February. After 4 months off, too free when sixth of 7 in handicap here (25.4f, good) in May. Needs to resume progress as she goes chasing.	96

BETTING FORECAST:

4-1 River of Joy, 6-1 Cuzco Du Mathan, 6-1 Do No Wrong, 8-1 Beny Nahar Road, 8-1 Cloughroe, 9-1 Sean Og, 10-1 No But I Will, 14-1 High Moon, 18-1 Dalyotin, 22-1 Vroomoz Eile

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Making second start back from a lengthy absence, RIVER OF JOY won with something to spare on chasing debut at Hexham in May and she can go on to better things over fences. She remains lightly raced for her age and is taken to see off the challenge of Beny Nahar Road, who could still have more to offer upped in trip. Cuzco du Mathan completes the shortlist.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

Going: Good to Soft

Left handed, tight. Only six fences to a circuit means little emphasis on jumping and, whilst the last few come in quick succession and can result in mistakes, the attrition rate is one of the lowest in the country. Run-in of half a mile from the last fence is the longest in the country and, unsurprisingly, the lead changes hands from the last more than would normally be expected, be it due to horses idling or tiring after being sent for home too soon.

Pace Information: Even

1	ALI STAR BERT (20) (D)	95
	2P321-P42 9 12-0   76.2kg Shaun Harris Seemingly flattered when gaining latest success at Southwell in March, a race that fell apart with 2 of the first 3 in the betting failing to complete. Well held next 2 starts, but took to this track well when second of 8 to Judicial Review recently and may well feature with a repeat.	Craig Nichol
2	BUMPY EVANS (IRE) (63)	100
	211-1 7 11-7   73.0kg Tim Vaughan Little show in 3 hurdles starts for Ben Lund, but won twice between the flags last spring and on a roll switched to fences for new yard, making it 3-4 in handicap chases with a tidy all-the-way success at Bangor (3m, good to firm) in May. Up 9 lb but he probably has more to offer in this sphere.	Conor O'Farrell
3	LIGHTS ARE GREEN (IRE) (56) (CD)	86
	441P56-6P 8 11-4   71.7kg George Bewley Narrow winner of a handicap chase over C&D last summer but it was a low-key 2024 otherwise. However, he shaped much better than the distance beaten suggested on return at Hexham in May and can have a line put through his latest effort over C&D, pulled up after bad mistake thirteenth.	Jonathon Bewley
4	MR MCWHINNY (IRE) (18)	99
	2P09-77UF 7 11-0   69.9kg Paul John Gilligan, Ireland Modest form at best over hurdles and has failed to complete in a couple of beginners chases. Upped in trip for handicap debut and this Irish raider could well prove a different proposition.	Jack G. Gilligan (5lb/2kg)
5	JELSKI (GER) (20) (CD)	89
	555790-36 11 11-0   69.9kg James Moffatt Back-to-back winner at this track in summer 2023 but it was a struggle for the most part of last year. However, step back in right direction off reduced mark when third over C&D on return in May but failed to build on that recently, finding less than looked likely. 1 of 2 for this yard.	Charlotte Jones
6	JUDICIAL REVIEW (IRE) (20) (CD)	94
	750/41-961 7 10-12   68.9kg James Moffatt Winner here (21f) last summer on only his second outing over fences and having disappointed on his first couple of outings this season, bounced back to form after just 2 days off when winning 8-runner handicap chase over C&D (soft) recently, dictating. Obvious claims from 4 lb higher.	Richie McLernon
7	BALLYDANGAN (IRE) (16)	96
	66P93-313 8 10-6   66.2kg Hugh Burns Didn't show much for Dan Skelton, but new yard has seemingly found the key to him, progressing on each of his first 4 runs for Hugh Burns. Gained breakthrough success at Hexham (24.2f, good to soft) last month and probably remained in form at Perth since. Each-way claims.	Peter Kavanagh
8	EUCHAN FALLS (IRE) (16)	96
	P65208-27 8 10-2(10-1)   64.4kg (64.0kg) R. Mike Smith Dual hurdles winner, but record stands at 0-14 in this sphere and, though runner-up 5 times over fences, he again looks vulnerable. Cheekpieces reapplied.	Nathan Moscrop
9	ITURGEON DU BREUIL (FR) (35)	93
	PP0P5-433 7 10-2(9-13)   64.4kg (63.0kg) Barry Murtagh Still a maiden but produced best effort to date over fences reverting to more positive tactics when 3½ lengths third of 12 to Ballydangan in handicap chase at Hexham (24.2f, good to soft) 5 weeks ago. Again out of the handicap but dangerous if able to build on that.	Lorcan Murtagh
10	THATSY (FR) (16)	90
	48/6643P-8 11 10-2(9-12)   64.4kg (62.6kg) Lizzie Quinlan Twenty-nine runs since last win in 2019 and tailed off back over timber at Perth recently. Back chasing but it almost goes without saying he makes very limited appeal.	Sean Quinlan

10 DECLARED RUNNERS

BETTING FORECAST:

7-4 Bumpy Evans, 9-2 Judicial Review, 6-1 Ali Star Bert, 7-1 Mr Mcwhinny, 10-1 Iturgeon Du Breuil, 16-1 Ballydangan, 33-1 Euchan Falls, 33-1 Jelski, 50-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

BUMPY EVANS hasn't looked back since attentions were turned to chasing for new connections and with further progress in the pipeline, Tim Vaugan's 7-y-o can record an impressive 4-timer returning from a short break. Ali Star Bert seemed suited by the idiosyncratic nature of this track when runner-up last month and he rates as the main threat, while recent C&D winner Judicial Review and Mr McWhinny can do battle for third.

TIMEFORM 1-2-3:

1	RESTANDBETHANKFUL (43) (CD)	t	95
	234786-5P 9 12-0   76.2kg Lizzie Quinlan C&D winner who has been in a lull over hurdles/fences since the turn of the year, jumping sketchily when pulled up in handicap chase at Bangor (17.4f, good) 43 days ago. Does find himself 5 lb below last winning mark if return to this venue/ wind op has positive effect.		Sean Quinlan
2	PITTSBURG (IRE) (11) (CD)	s+t	 100
	3112-2417 9 11-8   73.5kg Ryan Potter Likeable type who toughed it out under testing conditions when resuming winning ways in 9-runner C&D handicap in June. Rare below-par display when seventh over hurdles at Uttoxeter 11 days ago and likely type to bounce back returned to chasing.		Richie McLernon
3	SKY LUNA (IRE) (56)	s	99
	23PP-7 8 11-5   72.1kg James Moffatt Successful between the flags in 2024 and positive enough start over hurdles when placed in maiden/novice company here last summer. However, form tailed off pretty badly thereafter and she needs to take a big step back in the right direction now equipped with cheekpieces for this chase debut.		Charlotte Jones
4	COULDBEAWEAPON (IRE) (13)	s+t	97
	6P/964-732 8 10-10   68.0kg Sam England Fair 2m winner over hurdles who ran up to his recent best when good second of 5 in handicap chase at Market Rasen (17.2f, heavy, 2/1) 13 days ago, rallying to take that place close home. Possibilities for all he's an infrequent winner.		Jonathan England
5	LADY'S PRESENT (IRE) (13)		97
	6645F-673 8 10-5   65.8kg Philip Kirby Long-standing maiden who bettered a couple of hurdle exploits in June when third of 5 in handicap chase at Market Rasen (17.2f, heavy) 13 days ago. Still lightly raced in this sphere so she could yet have more to offer from a basement mark.		Ciaran Gethings
6	RORY'S STORY (IRE) (11)	t	98
	P4/636-324 6 10-3   64.9kg Tristan Davidson Maiden hurdler/chaser who shaped as if still in good form when fourth of 8 in handicap chase at Uttoxeter (2m, good) 11 days ago, unable to sustain effort. Not without hope in an open-looking handicap.		Harry Reed

BETTING FORECAST:

11-4 Couldbeaweapon, 7-2 Pittsburg, 9-2 Lady's Present, 6-1 Rory's Story, 13-2 Restandbethankful, 12-1 Sky Luna

TIMEFORM VIEW:

COULDBEAWEAPON clearly isn't the easiest to win with but there have been more encouraging signs with a tongue tie fitted of late and he could be the answer to this tricky puzzle. C&D winner Pittsburg who quickly switches back to larger obstacles is an obvious threat, whilst confidence behind Restandbethankful returned to this venue would need to be viewed positively.
