5 Norris returns after a short layoff but is probably well prepared. Has shown good form of late and is our favorite for the lead. Good chance. 8 Tui Southwind has done well with Jepson. Won together with him in November and was third in the last V75 race. Challenger. 6 Entrance has three runs under his belt and finished second at this track in December. Place bet. 4 Tellmenow has only one win so far but she has done well at the end and could cause an upset.

3 Wannabe Zaz has done well the last couple of races and is on the way up. Has a good chance of taking the lead here. All the way? 5 Tutankhaton won his debut and has started well for Hans Crebas. However, he galloped twice in the last race. Early challenger without a mistake. 2 Good As Caviar has returned after a very long break and finished strongly as third in the last race. Should be even better now. Good lane. 7 Jolly Good Pepper is not a superstar but he won the last race and is in good form. Tricky draw.

8 Heavenly Flavours is our pick in this weak race where the horses with most starting points have got the toughest lanes. He won from the lead in November and we hope he gets an offensive start and goes for the front. 12 Beryl J. Brown has done quite well of late and is now ridden by Stefan Persson. 11 Spirit of Love is perhaps the best horse in this field but has not raced since August. 6 S.G.'s Fortunate has two runs under his belt after a long layoff. Was second in the last race.

7 Jameson K.W. is winner because we think he will find an early lead together with André Eklundh. Good chance from there. 8 Klondyke River is a good opponent though and has shown fine form lately. Stefan Persson is driving now. 11 Börtas Ankare is very strong and can do it tough. This lane is not a big disadvantage for him. Has to be considered. 10 Vancouver High earned most money last year and comes from a good second place. Possible with the right trip.
