6 Baltimore Face is a four-year-old who can match tough competition this year and started the season with two nice victories. He's back behind the gate now and has a good chance of winning. 5 Sagredo Hanover is strong and likes it when there's a fast pace in the race, as he showed when he won two starts ago. He'll give the favorite a run for his money. 7 Vincent Cheri won five races last year, and he has good capacity. He's making his debut for a new trainer and should be watched closely. 12 Gibson Brick finished with a strong kick last time out, but he'll need some luck to be in the mix here.

8 Kingslayer Pellini was matched against tough company as a three-year-old and showed promise in the season opener for his new trainer Wäjersten. He meets quite easy opponents here. 9 Macho Man put in a strong final lap from outside the leader and was just closely beaten in his seasonal debut. He's sharper now and a definite contender. 4 Il Capitano Mearas had plenty left in the tank when finishing third in his seasonal debut. He can open fast behind the gate, and he could be driven in the lead this time. 12 Tailwind scored a tough win from outside the leader last time out.

8 Don'taskdon'ttell has faced tougher competition lately, and the Lars Wikström stable has shown good form this winter. Dropping down in class, he gets the pick. 9 Inferno Sisu has also faced better competition, and despite a layoff, he should be followed. He'll benefit from avoiding the ice track. 12 Didicoy has finished in the top two in six of eight races. Despite a pause and a poor post position, we have a lot of respect for him. 2 Supply Duct is closing in on his first victory. He is well drawn and will probably get an offensive journey here.

8 Maybach W.F. has been consistent and good this year, finishing at least second in four races. He won impressively last time and is in great form. 2 Mysterious Lucifer has the ability to compete at this level and may be more confident facing easier competition than he did in his last race at Solvalla. 6 Digital Literacy has also been competing in tough company for some time. He had a fantastic come-from-behind win at Bergsåker two starts ago and should be considered early here. 10 Ellis Pride got locked in with energy left in the seasonal debut but comes from a comfortable victory. He has good skills.
