5 Icannoliwearchanel showed nice speed resources as a 2-year-old. Qualified well before this and is an early contender in a race like this. 8 Glory Doc has shown good capacity for this type of race. Looked nice despite galloping in the last race. Early contender. 10 Ninepoints Nice has been really good so far without winning. Barefoot behind now. If well prepared after the layoff, he should have a good chance of winning. 6 Lovely Nish made her debut as a 4-year-old and was really good scoring her second win last time.

6 Bright Star U.S. has not started since August, but there is no doubt that this is a top horse. Owns plenty of strength and is our winner. 5 Kinky Boots has a race under his belt. Has been matched in tough companies and is better than the results show. 2 X.O. Kemp has fantastic speed and is favored by running barefoot. 1 Heavenly Zet is hard to predict and also faces tough competitors. Will be interesting to follow.

6 Mister Malabar galloped in the seasonal debut, but that was just an accident. The horse is strong for this class and without a mistake he is the horse to beat. 8 Brionne has started well this winter and spring. She galloped in five of the first six starts but has become more reliable. 2 Callela Classico faces nice conditions in the first circle and has to be considered without a mistake. 12 Jula Lovely returns after almost two years of competition. Showed good speed for the former trainer.

5 Fantastic Hall is in fine form. Opens alright but is not very fast. Looks like he has a good chance of winning. 9 Millstout made his debut for Matti Nisonen in the last race and was clearly good as third. Has very high capacity and is normally in the mix here. Interesting with an American bike. 6 Automatic Flight did well as third in the seasonal debut. Should be improved by that run under his belt. 10 Oliver Schermer was good as third in the last V85 race.

4 Beautiful James did well as second in the last comeback. Very quick starter and from this lane he should have a good chance of reaching the front. 10 Overtime Steel has a tricky number over the short distance but the horse is in fine form and could be dangerous anyway. 3 P.G.Persson has two runs under his belt after winter training and in the last race he was really good as second despite a mistake. 1 Fair Trade is a winning machine with twelve wins in 20 starts. Quick starter and barefoot straight away. Has to be considered.
