8 Far Wise As has the best track record. He is poorly drawn but can open fast and will certainly try to find an early lead. 9 Lifelong Journey has improved this year and should be considered early against some of the best of his year. 6 Romulus Tooma finished strongly in the last race showing 09.5/800. He has always competed against the top of his year and should be considered. 3 Loxahatchee can take the lead and is an early choice in that case.

2 Phantom Express showed last season that he is one of the best horses of his year. The four-year-old has the right attitude and is versatile. Good chance to lead this throughout. 1 Free Time Jepson is strong and tough. It will probably be difficult to hold the lead, but if he finds an opening in time, he will be in the fight. 5 Cashman J.R. has good speed and should be considered early behind our top duo. 3 Aberama Gold is developing well.
