- 3. EDENHAM - Won over 3700m on April 30th and a good 2nd before that. In top form. Key chance
- 4. GALLIPOLI - Ran well two runs back when 2nd at Pau over 3900m in January, that was a Class 3 race. Previously placed at Graded level over hurdles
- 5. CALOTIN - A good 2nd to EDENHAM (3) when they met on April 30th over 3700m. Should come on for the run
- 6. EASTER BOY - Won at Auteuil two runs back over hurdles on March 19th. Chase form has been sketchy
- 7. MISS MONTIGNY - 2nd two runs back over 4100m at Lyon Parilly in March. Could place at nice odds

Summary : A good winner at Haras Du Pin when last seen EDENHAM (3) can follow up on that success and go in again in this great contest for amateur riders. CALOTIN (5) was second in that race and is the one to beat again. IDEAL D'ALLIER (8) has been running consistently over fences and over hurdles and is sure to run another honest race and needs plenty of respect. GALLIPOLI (4) was a good second at Pau in January and if running to that sort of level here, he is sure to be involved.

SELECTIONS

EDENHAM (3) - CALOTIN (5) - IDEAL D'ALLIER (8) - GALLIPOLI (4)

- 7. WORTH A TEAM - Was a bit below par when only 5th behind JIGME (1) at this track last month. Has talent and should not be discounted

Summary : A really strong lineup, with the unbeaten JIGME (1) looking like the good thing of the day. He was very impressive when winning his latest outing over 500m shorter at this track in April by 12L. LEON DU BERLAIS (3) looks the type to get better with racing and is probably the main threat, although it will be hard to topple the favourite. BOOM BOOM CIAO (2) was second to JIGME (1) when they last met and will be vying for a place. WORTH A TEAM (7) needs a personal best to be in the mix.

JEDUSOR (3) was a good second behind the selection when they met at this venue and needs a bit more to get the better of him today. ALL RIGHT NOW (2) was a winner of a chase when last seen, the switch back to hurdles should not be a major issue and is the each-way selection. - 18. ALTESSE DU BERLAIS - Former Grade 1 Chase winner. 2nd at this track over 4700m in a Listed race on April 18th. Needs more to win

Summary : The main race of the day, with plenty of the runners having strong claims. GEX (10) is the marginal preference after a good win in one of the main prep-race at this track on April 8th. Progressive METASEQUOIA (5) can be a strong challenger after a good second behind GEX (10) when they met here on April 8th. CARRIACOU (4) has plenty of class and a comeback win over hurdles in a Listed race in early March was a nice prep for this event having been off the track for over 12 months prior to this. FRANCO DE PORT (1) is the mount of Paul Townend and trained by leading Irish trainer Willie Mullins. He ran well when third over this track recently and is a former winner in Ireland of a Grade 1 event. SARATOGA EST (10) has a 4kg penalty to defy but is currently developing into a serious horse. MOUJIK (13)'s last run was very encouraging and should also be shortlisted.

Summary : A facile 4L winner over this track in a Grade 2 race last month LOSANGE BLEU (5) is the main selection in this Grade 1. The Willie Mullins trained ZARAK THE BRAVE (6) could be the one to fear most after a good second in a Grade 1 hurdle at Punchestown in late April.
