RANK

10 Okidoki Keeper is a sister to Daniel Redén's former star Call Me Keeper. Qualified nicely and faces quite easy opponents here. 2 G.String galloped over the home stretch in the last race, probably on the way to a second spot. 4 Ecuador Broline has got a tricky number. Without a mistake, the horse is fast enough to be in the mix. 11 Zozo W.F. is driven by Jorma Kontio and competes barefoot here. Interesting changes.

2 Secret Brigadoon has started his career strongly with a win and a second place in two starts. This long distance should not be a problem. Perfect lane and the horse to beat. 10 Ready Creation is coming more and more and won nicely in the last race. Returns after winter training. 1 Ikaros Brick has started late as a 5-year-old, but has shown good pace. 11 Your Honor is not that bad. Possible but needs some racing luck.

4 Jeremy Zet was a big favourite to win in his debut but galloped. Looked very nice before that and is very good for this class. Top chance without a mistake. 7 Askefroa also galloped in her debut, as a 2-year-old. Returns after the winter training but seems to be well prepared. 8 Five Victory should be improved by a run under his belt. 12 Occam's Razor came back well after a gallop in the debut.

3 Eyesight has impressed under the saddle and faced better horses than lately. Should have a very good chance to win together with Agnes Larsson. Barefoot now. 2 Ironhide Sisu likes to race under the saddle. Might prefer the short distance, but Carre is interesting. 10 M.T. Ramos is consistent and good under the saddle. Sulky race last time. 4 B.B.S. Avicii is good for this class in sulky races. The debut in this discipline is exciting.

5 Vigilante started his career alright as a 3-year-old. He has now had a couple of months of training and will be interesting to follow barefoot. Our choice. 1 Grazzhopper has done really well in the first two starts. Perfect conditions here and should be considered. 10 Magic is not reliable, but has good speed and could get a nice start from this lane. 9 Poker Face is good, but this lane is tricky.

9 Global Caps makes his first start since August. Has always promised a lot, is strong and has the right attitude. Timo Nurmos uses to have his horses well prepared. Regardless of position, the horse should have a good chance as he can do it tough. 8 Joint Chief is on the way up. This lane is difficult but the horse owns good strength. 4 Gordon Brodde did well in the last race a bit behind the leader. Favorite for the front. Can lead this for a long time. 10 Hard Center is consistent and good.

1 Plucky Swamp won the debut for Daniel Redén after a long absence and finished fourth in the last race. Has two runs under his belt and should be on the way up. From the inner lane he has a good chance to take the lead. Hard to beat. 14 Dear Wise As has impressed a lot this year. If he avoids a mistake and gets a decent trip, he is a contender here. 7 Timecatcher has good capacity for this class. 11 First To Fight is matched in good companies and is possible too but needs some racing luck.
