R1 VINCENNES [L-H]

C1 - PRIX TRITON - 2700m (a1m1/2) - Class D - Harness - EUR € 56,000

1. JOURNAL INTIME - Won a 2100m Class E here before repeating in a Laval Class D 3 weeks ago. Excels with Matthieu Abrivard and although unlikely to impose can nevertheless finish in the mix

2. JAGUAR DJOB - Has a pair of runs in him since the summer spell but is far from his spring form and will have little to offer

3. JAG HAUFOR - Very hard to fault this term when barefoot, latterly running 2nd to JOURNAL INTIME (1) in a 2850m Laval Class D on 1 November. Will struggle to win this but is unlikely to be far off the mark

4. IRIS INTENSE - Unplaced on re-entry at Le Mont-Saint-Michel recently on first start since December 2024. Stays shod and not a concern

5. JEDI DES BROUETS - Modest element that has done nothing of note for some time and even racing barefoot has no possible chance

6. JERICHO DU RIB - Won 2 on the trot before coming 5th behind JABLONSKI (11) in race of reference. Has talent in spades though and, given the chance, can make a big splash

7. JAGUAR D'OBRET - Placed twice in the provinces before losing his action in an Enghien Class C on 18 October. Goes barefoot, with Eric Raffin reining this time, but looks a minor place prospect at best

8. IQUEM - Has form in this category but has looked decidedly ordinary for much of the year and is unlikely to shake things up

9. JANKO HAUFOR - Should not be too hastily-condemned for coming last of 11 behind JABLONSKI (11) here 2.5 weeks ago. Boasts superb references over 2700m here and will be expected to apply the pressure this time

10. JUPITER DU CORTA - Returns to the harness code after some fine monte performances. Is shod as he was here late last month and could pleasantly surprise

11. JABLONSKI - In the frame in last 2 and is terrifically-engaged here. Has started to show his 4yo form and should be good enough to get his nose in front this time

Summary: A serious trotter with nothing to prove at this level, JABLONSKI (11) has returned from his lengthy absence in fine condition and has twice gone close recently. JMB gives him another go and looks the pick of the field this time. JANKO HAUFOR (9) did not enjoy the best of trips behind him here recently but Damien Bonne will be out to set the record straight. Enjoying something of a renaissance since starting to race barefoot, JERICHO DU RIB (6) raced better that day than the result would suggest and should prove more competitive this time around. JOURNAL INTIME (1) has never been in better shape and even though in superior company this time, still looks a major player.

SELECTIONS

JABLONSKI (11) - JANKO HAUFOR (9) - JERICO DU RIB (6) - JOURNAL INTIME (1)

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

C2 - PRIX FLORENTINA - 2700m (a1m1/2) - Class E - Harness - EUR € 41,000

- 1. KARAT DEFF - Tricky but talented type returning to Vincennes after returning to competition early last month. Has placed just once in 5 Vincennes appearances but, if given the chance, will not be far from the action
- 2. KEZIO JOSSELYN - Won 2 on the trot racing clockwise before failing to deliver behind KREIZ DE PRAT GUEN (7) at Enghien last month. Has previously acquitted himself well here and although not a priority is still worth keeping an eye on
- 3. KELLER DE L'ITON - Good, consistent campaigner making first appearance since running 2nd at Reims in mid-September. Shod to preference for re-entry but is being aimed too high
- 4. KAIROS DE BOMO - Going well when eliminated in a 2850m Class D here a month ago. Has never delivered over 2700m here but has been reconfigured and in current condition is not to be ignored
- 5. KAI D FORTUNA - Starts for the first time since 11 September. Hind shoes off for the occasion, with Eric Raffin in the bike, but others still easier to back
- 6. KANAK DU BOCAGE - Imposed at Feurs in September but has twice failed to confirm. Front shoes off this time and with Alexandre Abrivard in the bike will be afforded every chance
- 7. KREIZ DE PRAT GUEN - Has taken his game to a new level since starting to race barefoot, most recently 3rd in an Enghien Class E in mid-October. Debuts at Vincennes but with Yoann Lebourgeois reining is not to be underestimated
- 8. KILLER BOND - Has not got his nose in front for 17 months but has decent references under these conditions and, if fully fit, can play an important role
- 9. KELAS - Fine servant with excellent clockwise references but under these conditions has no possible chance
- 10. KAPITEN DU MELEUC - Solid during the summer but has since come off the boil and can be confidently ruled out
- 11. KEOPS DE JUMILLY - Ran 3rd in a 2850m Class D on Vincennes debut in late-September before winning a Class E at Enghien. Takes on a better lot here but in current condition is still worth keeping an eye on
- 12. KING DE CHOISEL - Comfortable winner of a Class E over track and trip before freshening up at Graignes late last month. Has won 3 of 5 when barefoot this term and is expected to add another to his tally
- 13. KILLER DE CAHOT - Did not enjoy the best of trips when eliminated in a Laval Class C 3 weeks ago. Has no Vincennes references but will not be far off the mark if he stays in stride
- 14. KYSKO DE FAEL - Flattering 3rd of 6 finishers in a monte Class E at Laval 2 weeks ago. Has never disappointed here, and sports a fresh formula, but looks to be out of his depth
- 15. KAVANI - 4th over course and distance on 6 October. Seldom disappoints under these conditions and is competitively well in. Place chance
- 16. KRISTO STAR - Solid during the summer but out of the picture in last 2. Has yet to produce the goods at Vincennes and is not about to start now

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

Summary: The wealthier elements appear to have the upper hand here with early-October course-and-distance winner KING DE CHOISEL (12) barefoot and easy to like for a repeat. KILLER DE CAHOT (13) raced better at Laval earlier in the month than the result would suggest and Guillaume Martin will be eager to put things right. Just 300 Euros from elimination, KAVANI (15) was not the luckiest here a fortnight ago but can more than make amends if Mathieu Mottier keeps him out of trouble. KILLER BOND (8) has a pair of runs under his belt, races barefoot for the first time this season, and is unlikely to let the side down.

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

C3 - PRIX KERONIS - 2700m (a1m1/2) - Class D - Harness - EUR € 40,000

- 1. LADY OF DURBUY - Returns to racing barefoot after her Tongres comeback run early this month but in this company will struggle to make her presence felt
- 2. LAMBADA TURGOT - 5th, a place behind LOVELY FACE (7), in a Class D over track and trip 2 weeks ago after having being denied a run. Form is not in question and can finish in the mix if Cedric Terry keeps her out of harm's way
- 3. LUTECE D'ELA - Respectable element starting for the first time since placing at Enghien in mid-August and others preferred this time around
- 4. LASSIE - Confirmed Enghien success over course and distance on 8 November only to lose the race in the stewards' room. Mathieu Mottier in the bike this time and looks main threat to LOUANGE CASTELETS (9)
- 5. L'ETOILE D'URPIN - Showed promise at 3 but disappointing on the whole since, and even racing barefoot will have few friends
- 6. LEONTINE CASH - Returned from her summer break in fine fettle, most recently winning a Class D under these conditions late last month, but in this category will struggle to make her mark
- 7. LOVELY FACE - 4th of 9 finishers, on comeback, in 8 November race of reference. Will have progressed for the race and can repeat
- 8. LYRA POTERIE - Complicated but talented filly that would have finished close under these conditions 2 weeks ago had she not endured traffic woes, and Yoann Lebourgeois will be determined to set the record straight
- 9. LOUANGE CASTELETS - Serious sort that has taken no time showing her form following a lengthy layoff. Faces first objective of the winter and looks primed for success
- 10. LATINA QUICK - Capable filly making her first appearance since faulting at Enghien in March. Will have come on during her layoff and with shoes off for re-entry will be worth monitoring
- 11. LINOTTE DU MOUCHEL - Unremarkable filly making first appearance since late-July. Tends to prefer a shorter trip and can be passed over
- 12. LOVELY GODIVA - Surprise winner of a Class D over course and distance in September before failing to impress across town early last month, and is not about to create an upset
- 13. LOLA D'OHARA - Placed at Enghien and over 2175m here before running 4th of 16 in a Nantes Class B early this month. Takes on a better lot this time and represents no more than minor place prospect
- 14. LADY STARLIGHT - Like a horse reborn since starting to run barefoot. Has not raced for 4 months but has shoes off for the occasion and Anthony Barrier will be keen to take advantage of the good entry
- 15. LONG LEGEND - Has looked decidedly ordinary since the summer and even though reconfigured still has nothing to offer

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

Summary: A lightly-raced filly, LOUANGE CASTELETS (9) showed significant talent last season, has been quick to pick up where she left off and, barefoot for the first time, can open her 2025 account. Eric Raffin will still want to be wary of the reinvigorated LASSIE (4) who should not be too hastily-judged for being eliminated here a fortnight back. 5th that day after having pleased at Cabourg, LAMBADA TURGOT (2) has a decent chance of making the frame this time, as will LYRA POTERIE (8) who is clearly in excellent shape.

SELECTIONS

LOUANGE CASTELETS (9) - LASSIE (4) - LAMBADA TURGOT (2) - LYRA POTERIE (8)

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

C4 - PRIX OSTARA - 2100m (a1m1/4) - Class C - Harness - EUR € 53,000

- 1. KUEEN'S PRIDE - Won 6 of last 7 starts, most recently at Châtelailon. Is still behind in earnings and has a realistic chance of imposing
- 2. KASSYA - Twice a winner here last winter but has done little of note over recent months and even racing barefoot will have her work cut out
- 3. KANDIE D'ORCO - Back to the capital after being well-beaten in a Class A at Lyon-Parilly. Enjoys a good draw but little else
- 4. KOMERE DE CORDAY - Made short work of a 2850m Class C here on 10 October before coming competitive 4th in a Laval Class C 3 weeks ago. Benefits from a terrific draw and Mathieu Mottier will be eager to make hay
- 5. KIKA JOSSELYN - Won 2 in a row last winter before being put away. Has a race under her belt and, shod to preference and nicely-drawn, is not to be underestimated
- 6. KNITULIA - Left a good impression in a Class B over 2700m here on 17 October prior to pleasing at Saint-Malo 3 weeks ago. Starts in front, imposed under these conditions during the spring, and must be respected
- 7. KALINE DE VIVOIN - Put a trio of eliminations behind her to trounce the opposition in a 2700m Class C here on 4 November. Is barefoot this time and will have this in the bag if Eric Raffin keeps her mind on the job
- 8. KANAKA DE BUSSET - Got back in the game when runner-up to KALINE DE VIVOIN (7) in a 2700m Class D here 2.5 weeks ago. A repeat, however, seems unlikely
- 9. KORALIA DE CROUAY - Made up for October run here when 2nd to KUEEN'S PRIDE (1) in a Châtelailon Class D earlier in the month. Cannot be considered a priority, and is drawn wide, but can still get a look in
- 10. KALINKA DU GREMAT - Imposed over course and distance in August but has failed to impress in 3 starts since and can be confidently passed over
- 11. KELLE CLASS - Started to come good late-summer but has since come off the boil and even with shoes off will have little to contribute
- 12. KRAKANTE - 2nd to KOMERE DE CORDAY (4) here on 10 October before failing to fire over 2700m. Reverts to her preferred configuration and even from the 2nd line can redeem herself
- 13. KLASSICA BLEUE - Won 2 of 3 before losing her action in a 2700m Class C here on 4 November. Imposed over course and distance 5 weeks earlier and will have her chances if her driver successfully negotiates the start

Summary: It took time and patience but KALINE DE VIVOIN (7) more than made amends for a series of eliminations when dominating a Class C here 2.5 weeks ago. She goes barefoot this time and with application should logically repeat. KLASSICA BLEUE (13) would have been competitive that day had she kept trotting but Alexandre Abrivard will be mindful to keep her focused. KOMERE DE CORDAY (4) won comfortably over longer here last month and the engagement of Mathieu Mottier will only enhance her already good prospects. Simply dynamic when barefoot, KUEEN'S PRIDE (1) is new to Vincennes but has demonstrated good versatility and must be considered a serious proposition. KNITULIA (6) has been lurking over recent months and can finish in the mix.

C5 - PRIX VICTORIA - 2700m (a1m1/2) - Class D - Mounted - EUR € 46,000

- 1. KARTING BOY - Has pleased for the most part since returning to the discipline. Won under these conditions at 3, sports a new formula, but is not a major concern
- 2. KORINTO BELLO - Opened his monte account on 7 October when dominating a Class D over course and distance. Mathieu Mottier stays faithful and will have KHEOPS TURGOT (12) in his crosshairs. Chance
- 3. KEPHYR D'ESTE - Serious type starting for the first time since February. Presents fine course-and-distance credentials but may just be a race shy
- 4. KENYAN BLUES - Valiant 3rd to KORINTO BELLO (2) in a Class D over course and distance on 7 October, before flopping here later in the month. In the frame in both starts with his jockey and can challenge for a place in the picture
- 5. KAVALO BELLO - Back under the saddle after running 3rd in a harness Class E under these conditions a fortnight ago. Has no monte references but François Lagadeuc knows him and should be taken seriously
- 6. KAIROUAN GLAM - Comfortable winner at Enghien in September on return to the discipline. Guillaume Martin back aboard following a harness freshener, goes unshod behind, and with application can finish close
- 7. KEPI ROUGE - Capable type returning to the venue after being conditioned at Nantes. Is barefoot for the occasion but others still easier to back
- 8. KRONOS DE VANDEL - Well-beaten in a Gr.2 here on 10 October before losing her action in a Class C 3 weeks later. Is no slouch when focused though and is worth retaining for a first-5 payout
- 9. KING DE PLAY - Failed to confirm Laval victory when trounced in a Class C here 2 months ago, and can expect to have few takers
- 10. KEY BISCAYNE - Returns to the ridden code after some lacklustre harness conditioners and appears to have no realistic chance
- 11. KANSAS QUESNOT - Finished last of 6 in a Gr.2 here before running lacklustre 8th of 11 in a harness conditioner at Le Croise-Laroche 2 weeks ago, and is not about to influence the result
- 12. KHEOPS TURGOT - Left quite the impression last June when storming up in a similar event here. Has a pair of runs under his belt and Alexandre Abrivard can be confident of a big run

Summary: Put away after winning his monte debut over course and distance last June, the well-engaged KHEOPS TURGOT (12) is shod as he was that day, reunited with Alexandre Abrivard, and is just marginally preferred to KORINTO BELLO (2) who won unopposed here in early-October. KAIROUAN GLAM (6) has something of a love-hate relationship with Vincennes but showed his form at Enghien on his penultimate start, and will be reconfigured for the occasion. KENYAN BLUES (4) is never the easiest to gauge but he has never failed to deliver for Eric Raffin and, barefoot this time, must be regarded a player.

SELECTIONS

KHEOPS TURGOT (12) - KORINTO BELLO (2) - KAIROUAN GLAM (6) - KENYAN BLUES (4)

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

C6 - PRIX HERMANTARIA - 2700m (a1m1/2) - Class A - Harness - EUR € 62,000

- 1. MY NAME IS BOND - Has done nothing noteworthy since the spring and latest Reims performance does nothing to inspire confidence
- 2. MIRAKALU MANAZIF - Has won 3 of last 4, most recently a 2100m Class C in early-October. Comes here fresh and has a realistic chance of contesting the finish
- 3. MODERN STYLE - Has gone from strength to strength recently, latterly 2nd in a 2175m Class B here 2 weeks ago. Has bags of untapped potential and can go far
- 4. MISTER CHARLY - Has not put a foot wrong since returning to competition, latterly a place behind MODERN STYLE (3) in a Class B here a fortnight ago, and can again challenge for a place on the podium
- 5. MONEY CASH - Clearly capable but has shown better aptitude for the inner course and his recent Nantes run did nothing to reassure
- 6. MAESTRO DU CHOQUEL - Imposed over the inner track in September before running 4th in a Class A over track and trip in mid-October. Is clearly at the top of his game and looks a respectable first-5 prospect
- 7. MACHIAVEL BOURBON - Quality future prospect that is clearly close to his first success of the winter meeting. Will not have Mister Dream Ty to contend with this time and can expect the lion's share of support
- 8. MANASLU - Talented colt making first appearance since July. Is clearly in conditioning-mode though and is unlikely to trouble the judge

Summary: A good race in prospect despite the small number of runners, however most of the money will still be aimed at the fine MACHIAVEL BOURBON (7) who makes his much-awaited Vincennes bow with every chance of making it a successful one. Eric Raffin will be justifiably concerned though by MIRAKALU MANAZIF (2) who opened his Vincennes account in good order early last month. MODERN STYLE (3) has done nothing but improve lately, has shown a liking for the main track, and steps up in category with a good hand to play.

SELECTIONS

MACHIAVEL BOURBON (7) - MIRAKALU MANAZIF (2) - MODERN STYLE (3) - MISTER CHARLY (4)

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

C7 - PRIX EURYNOME - 2100m (a1m1/4) - Class C - Harness - EUR € 38,000

- 1. NOSTRA COSA - Easily imposed at Cabourg before coming 5th here last week. Would have made a bigger impact had she not faulted and David Thomain will be eager to put things right. Chance
- 2. NORMA JEANE - Surprise 4th of 11 in a 2850m Class D here 8 days ago. Will not be sent out at 116-1 this time, but will not be as competitive either
- 3. NOUMBA AS - Unexceptional in 2 starts to date and is not about to take advantage of the good draw. Disregard
- 4. NESPERA - Comfortable winner of both starts to date. Has yet to be properly tested and despite the presence of some better horses, still looks the one to beat
- 5. NATURALLY STAR - Set off no fireworks in qualification but imposed on debut 3 weeks ago, easily securing a 2625m Cherbourg Class F. At this level however, may just be taking on too much
- 6. NOLITA MADRIK - Ran 2nd at Cabourg before coming 3rd of 7 in a 2200m Class B here 2.5 weeks ago. Takes a dip in category and is unlikely to disappoint. Place chance
- 7. NOT FOR FUN - Nicely-related filly that was never pushed when successful 10 days ago in a Chateaubriant Class E first time out. Will have come on for the race and should again prove competitive at the business end of affairs
- 8. NOVA TURGOT - Qualified respectably in August and made good on her promise first time out, winning a Class F at Le Mont-Saint-Michel late last month. Is in better company this time but should nevertheless hold her own
- 9. NACHYMA BERRY - Pleased on her turf debut on 19 October before enduring a tough trip behind NOSTRA COSA (1) here 8 days ago. Is plainly better than that and despite the draw will be expected to get back in the game. First 5
- 10. NORDIC GIRL - Eliminated in all 4 starts to date and debuts at Vincennes with limited prospects

Summary: Winner first time out during the summer, NESPERA (4) went on to easily confirm at Caen last month and is ideally-positioned to keep her undefeated record intact. She will still be up against Philippe Allaire's promising NOSTRA COSA (1) who would have finished closer here last week had she got off on the right foot. NOT FOR FUN (7) did everything expected of her at the first time of asking and even though drawn wide still looks capable of trotting her way into the picture. NOLITA MADRIK (6) is unlikely to lose her maiden status but she has shown considerable potential and will generate interest.

SELECTIONS

NESPERA (4) - NOSTRA COSA (1) - NOT FOR FUN (7) - NOLITA MADRIK (6)

FRIDAY, 21/11/25

C8 - PRIX LEONA - 2850m (a2m) - Class B - Mounted - EUR € 52,000

- 1. LOUVE ANGEL - Eliminated in a 2175m Class D here on 4 November. Has form here and although unlikely to impose, can nevertheless pick up a first-5 cheque
- 2. LAREINE D'OURVILLE - Has yet to impress since returning from her break, latterly losing her action in a Class D here on 4 November, and can expect to have little support in the markets
- 3. LUCIFER D'ORPHEE - Quality trotter but has not raced since early-August. Goes shod for re-entry and best to hold off
- 4. LEMON FLEURY - Fine dual-discipline colt that has taken to the ridden game like a duck to water. Imposed in 1'10"5 here earlier in the month and will take all the beating
- 5. LE PRIEURE - Superb winner of a 2175m Class C here on 7 October. Has been afforded ample time to get back in shape and, barefoot again, is not incapable of repeating
- 6. LE VOYOU D'ALMO - Well-regarded but erratic colt starting for the first time since late-May. Shoes fitted and not a priority
- 7. LAFOLLY DELO - Returned from her break in excellent form. Not beaten by much in a 2850m Gr.3 here last month and tends to go well for Alexandre Abrivard. Place chance
- 8. LYZIA DES AGETS - 4th of 13 in a 2700m Gr.2 here on 6 November. Races at a more reasonable level this time and will not be available at 132-1
- 9. LOTUS ZEN - Useful type but has not been seen out since running 4th in a Gr.3 here last August. Will be barefoot though and can get a look in
- 10. LUCAS - Out of the picture in all 3 return runs. Goes barefoot this time but others still preferred

Summary: Yet to disappoint in this branch of the business, LEMON FLEURY (4) would prefer the main track but he outclassed the opposition here 2.5 weeks ago and even with shoes fitted is eminently capable of repeating. Mathieu Mottier will still be mindful of LE PRIEURE (5) who made no bones about securing his first goal of the winter, and the serious LAFOLLY DELO (7) who ran 2nd in a Gr.3 over the long course a month ago. LYZIA DES AGETS (8) sprang quite the surprise in a Gr.2 here a fortnight ago and should prove more competitive at this level.

SELECTIONS

LEMON FLEURY (4) - LE PRIEURE (5) - LAFOLLY DELO (7) - LYZIA DES AGETS (8)
