1 Humanity Pellini has put in a lot of strong performances during spring last year but then had a longer break. Now the gelding has got three races under his belt and is on his way to top form. Last time he won in superior style from the lead and it sounds good from the stable for the upcoming task. 6 The Böhmaren won the hard way last time and put in a great effort. He is good for this class and should of course be considered early. 4 Steady Victory won comfortably last time and should be better now, according to Hanna Lähdekorpi.

2 Twenty Dollar got a tough trip on the outside of the leader last time and on the home stretch he had beaten the latter one but shortly later he got defeated by a good Elettra Robin. 8 Peak Cash-flow galloped right at the start last time, but came back well a bit behind the winner and showed that the form is there. She is good fort this class and should be taken very seriously. 11 Moira Boko is more strong than fast and benefits if the pace would be high between our top duo.

6 Call Me Gleipner can take the lead here. From there, the four-year-old is undefeated after one attempt and should be seen with a good chance of improving that statistic. Our pick. 9 Chaplin won easily after a sharp finish second last and has speed resources and has good capacity for this class. Lane nine is not ideal but when he finds room, he will defeat many opponents in the end. 8 Mister Twister looked a bit slow in the final turn last time, but came back strongly on the home stretch and won easily in the end.

3 Knock Boots Mearas started well for Svante Båth and has good capacity. Now he will try to reach the front. He is probably favored if he gets there and in that case he is the horse to beat. 4 Muro Beach Pellini is used to winning but has won by a very narrow margin three times. 2 Ilex PR has never won but is consistent and good and will soon score a victory. 7 Lilo Love will be dangerous here with the right trip for the trainer who is driving himself.

Interesting here and is our pick here in this open race. 2 Al Pacino is really good for this class and should have a good chance to find the lead. 6 Cash Bore showed fine form between mistakes last time. 7 Arachi's PR is working well according to the stable and he is better than the latest results show.

5 Jameson KW has opened well behind the car on several occasions. Here we think that the horses on the inside will let him take the lead and then he should have a good chance to win this. 4 Cocktail Cake will probably give away the lead here just like last time. Early contender from the pocket. 2 Springdayfree is not bad and working well after a short break. Is well drawn and should get a nice trio. Early choice behind the favorite. 9 El Toro Pellini is worth a warning with Johan Untersteiner this time.
