8 Mellby Lion is strong and tough and, despite this draw and the seasonal debut, he should be counted early with the right trip in this low-class race. The stable is not very optimistic, but the horse is certainly well prepared and in an open race he is our pick. 12 Eleonora SH is better than the results suggest and had energy left over the finish line last time. 5 Eloise Frontline started very promisingly as a three-year-old but had an unsuccessful season as a 4-year-old. Has not competed for a long time, but owns good capacity for the class. 1 Hygihak is aiming for the front and if she holds up the lead she is possible all the way.

5 Samedayasmilla led throughout last time in an easy race, but the impression was good. The opposition is not very tough this time either and should she reach the front again, she is possible again here. 12 Cloudless Osåfin was responsible for some nice efforts last year and scored a strong victory. Mediocre last time but has got a break and a winter of training. Despite this lane and the seasonal debut, she must be considered early in this low-class race. 8 My Sweet Shadow comes from a good victory in the lead. Will hardly reach that position now, but has good form and should be counted early. 2 India DK is not easy to judge but the horse should be seen as an outsider in an open race.

11 Haslehaugens Loke came back very strongly last time after an early mistake. He is matched against much tougher company and was third in the Criterium last year. Seasonal debut now, but he is well prepared and the distance should not be a problem. Top chance. 10 Kökkien galloped on the way to a good result last time, maybe even the victory. Gifted horses, but not reliable at all. 8 Wilda Eric is in good form for the day and followed strongly from the lead last time when he challenged Guli Rufus. 3 Deviljas Kloker was mediocre last time and does not win very often, but should normally be followed in a company like this.

9 Gibson Brick was pressed on several occasions last time and did alright without impressing. Before that, he had scored two great wins in a row. Will probably get an offensive trip here and should get a nice journey in this small field. Can do it tough and our pick. 4 Kane Beuckenswijk has made good efforts throughout the winter and was a good second in the V75 five starts ago. Quick starter and early leader. 7 OP's Flawless makes his seasonal debut but is used to winning and likes the short distance. 6 Gone Fishing does not like the distance but is possible anyway in case of over-pace.

RANK

1 Blomsterprinsen was strong last time, but over the long distance. This number one and the short distance are tricky but he is good enough to be in the mix and there is no doubt that he is the best horse in the field. He will hardly find the lead here, but with some racing luck, he should have a good chance. 9 Grude Trygve never had a chance against Blomsterprinsen second last. Unbeaten over the short distance and comes from a strong effort. 5 Brageson was too fiery in the lead last time and ran at an insane pace. Contender for the lead and leads for a long while. 4 Holms Herkules has shown fine winter form.

10 Ytowns Dragon has made solid efforts and faces slightly easier opposition this time. He has shown that he can do it tough and, despite this draw over the short distance, he should have a good chance to sprint to victory. 2 Atlas A'lir was quite brave from the outside of the leader last time. Can open fast and should have a good chance to reach the front now. 5 Grab The Moment dictated the pace in the lead last time, and won without being empty. Challenging for the front and should he get there again, he leads the race for a long time. 9 Betterbegoodtome has lined up second places but no wins yet. Takes first career win any time.
