1 Black Bourbon gets the tip set in a very even and difficult race where everyone has a chance to win. He showed good capacity last year and met some sensible horses. In the last start last year, he was almost superior despite a short start gallop. hard to predict from the start and in the year's debut but does fine. 7 Västerbo Adventure is also making its annual debut and is training very strongly. Also , barefoot in the back now and the trainer generally sounds very good. Some swaying risk but victory fights straight away. 10 Gustaf Avenue won a easy race last time but did it nicely via heavy work and gets Ulf Ohlsson in the sulky this time. 9 Queen Håleryd is smooth and capable and to keep up the pace well as second most recently in a coach match in Finland. Mats Djuse up now.

2 Tekno Tana gets the tip in a race where mares have an advantage and have earned as much money as those on supplements. She pulled hard in the lead last time but had to go to the line against capable Järvsö Jop but set a sharp time and responded for a very nice race. It looks like she is heading towards the lead again and there she is the horse to beat. 8 Grude Trygve looked dangerous going into the race on the V86 last time, but was a bit muted in the last bit. He is fast out and has a very good draw and is stepping down a bit in class now. 1 Tekno Lina was close to holding off Ethel on V75 last time and is favorite to back the leader here. Totally given. 5 Guli Em warmed well last time but was pale and dropped from the back of the winner. Barefoot now is a plus and the horse should have rising form and is good enough.

RACE 8 — V64-5 — AUTO 1640 — RANK

11 Bourne Dominion is a horse that is considerably more capable than the ones he meets here, and a little over a year ago, for example, he was the clear favorite in a Klass I-heat at V75. Now he is making his annual debut here but there are very positive training reports and a working Bourne Dominion could be superior here. In a difficult round where we have no feeling for the challengers , we nail the chance! 7 Elvis Travian is more simple as a horse and has struggled to do well in Sverige before, but the efforts at the end have been improved and last time he won by far from the lead via 1.14.8 s 1000 m after leading just from track seven behind the car. Ohlsson up now and learning to attack. 4 MMHot One galloped straight last but went strong afterwards and the trainer sounds very up. He actually meets easier horses now than last time and from a much better draw for him. The Hästen has a fast start and when he reaches the lead it can be enough all the way if our nail comes off.
