

RACE 1, V4-1

Auto 2640

1 Cesar F.C. has been matched against tougher horses than these and scored a couple of good wins this autumn. Faces very nice conditions in this seasonal debut and will be hard to beat in the lead. 3 Zidane D.E. faces very tough conditions money-wise here. He won for his new trainer in the last race but bolted directly after. The form is a question mark but he has good ability. 5 Order by Box has not won yet this year but seems in good shape and is well drawn behind the gate. 9 TasteofChocolatier was second in the last race and improved. Likes this long distance.

Volt 2140

Wide open race. 9 Monster Mustasch has shown good form so far this year and will soon score a victory. Shorter distance now than in the last race and that should be an advantage. 8 Järvsö Johanna galloped in the last race but came back well and is both fast and good for this class. Early contender. 6 V.Viking was successful last summer and scored a good win on Oviken. This new driver is interesting. Has not raced for a long while though. 1 Spang Vinvar came back well after a mistake in the last race. Is ideally drawn.

5 Vimse Lars has been consistent and good for a while and is in fine form. He can open fast and is reliable. Faces nice conditions here and could lead this throughout just like in the last race. Banker. 8 Alma Prins has good capacity but gave up from outside the leader in the last race and the form is a question mark. 10 Zitor met tough horses last year but comes from a nice second spot in the seasonal debut. Outsider. 3 Byske Philip seems on the way up for his new trainer and this short distance is a big advantage.

RACE 4, V4-4

Volt 2140

9 Unlimited Face showed the right attitude in his first season last year. Scored seven wins in 13 races and put in several really strong performances. Seasonal debut now but very good for this class and the horse to beat here. 1 Cab Frontline was sixth in the last race and a bit slow. Had been ill before that race and should be on the way up. Could lead this for a long while. 7 Huddleston is good for this class and has one race under his belt now. On the way up and dangerous if he handles the start. 5 Whispering Pines has started this season really well and should not be overlooked in this race either.
