RACE 1

ASCONA LADIES FUELLED BY FASHION HANDICAP (5) 3yo+
(Rated 0-75) £8,000 2m (3220 Metres)

Going: Good (Good to Firm in places)

Ffos Las is a left-handed track and essentially galloping in nature. Approximately a mile and a half in extent, the course is very flat and fair with a long home straight, including an extension to enable a straight track for races over five and six furlongs, though the ground can get extremely testing when at its worst.

Draw: N/A Pace Information: Very Weak

BETTING FORECAST:

13-8 Navid, 11-4 Kentucky River, 3-1 Masterdream, 9-1 Simiyann, 33-1 Hedonista

TIMEFORM VIEW:

NAVID impressed when making all to win over 14f at Salisbury, finding extra when challenged and looking likely to relish this even longer trip. He can continue his upward trajectory at the expense of Masterdream, who has a previous course and distance success. Kentucky River won impressively at Pontefract, though the winning margin was arguably a touch flattering and he faces a stiffer task under a 6-lb penalty.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

WINDSOR PASS has been running consistently well in handicaps, finding only one too good at Southwell on her most recent outing, and can go one better if avoiding her usual starting problems once again. Charencey may benefit from a first-time visor after taking a keen hold last time, with Cypriot Diaspora and Flatley others in the mix.

TIMEFORM VIEW:

SAACHI ended time with his former stable with a good third over this sort of trip at Leicester 2 months ago and a repeat can see him firmly in the mix again now equipped with a first-time visor. Recent Windsor scorer Sea of Charm is another expected to be in the thick of things, with handicap debutant Rogue Justice another to note.
