CURRAGH TO CURRAGH CHARITY CYCLE ON 30th AUGUST
MAIDEN HURDLE 4yo+ €10,000 2m (3220 Metres)

Going: Good

Kilbeggan is a sharp, right-handed round track of around nine furlongs in extent. It is undulating with a particularly sharp turn after the second-last fence and though the run-in of around 300 yards is uphill this is no track for a long-striding horse or a staying type. There are six fences to a circuit of the chase track, which is laid out on the outside of the hurdles track.

6	CUGUILLA (IRE) (13)	71
	6 5 10-11   68.5kg John Patrick Ryan, Ireland Conor Clarke (71lb/3kg) Workforce mare who seemed unsuited by the emphasis on speed when finishing sixth of 7 in novice hurdle at this course (16f, good to soft) on NH debut 13 days ago, outpaced from 2 out and unable to land a blow. Progress not ruled out upped markedly in trip.

QUANTUM QUEST ran his best race since his hurdling bow when runner-up in a Downpatrick maiden back in March, leaving the impression that this further step up in trip could well unlock further progress. He's been absent since but resumes with the Henry de Bromhead stable very much amongst the winners and could be the answer. Reiki Revolution has been shaping up well of late and he rates the chief threat.

Going: Good

SMART STATS:

No Smart Stats available for this race

Kilbeggan is a sharp, right-handed round track of around nine furlongs in extent. It is undulating with a particularly sharp turn after the second-last fence and though the run-in of around 300 yards is uphill this is no track for a long-striding horse or a staying type. There are six fences to a circuit of the chase track, which is laid out on the outside of the hurdles track.

Pace Information: Very Weak

TIMEFORM VIEW:

BAL KAUTO was successful on both his previous starts over fences and arrives on back of decisive victory over the smaller obstacles at Galway last month. He makes plenty of appeal. Nouvotic and Invictus Machin are feared most.

10	SELLERNA BAY (IRE) (14) 02-2 5 11-7   73.0kg Mark Fahey, Ireland Mr D. Doyle Back from 15 months off when good second of 10 in bumper at Wexford (16.7f, good to soft, 4/1) a fortnight ago. Entitled to build on that and looks sure to make another bold bid.	★	100

TIMEFORM VIEW:

SELLERNA BAY ran a cracker on her return from a lengthy absence at Wexford earlier this month and remains low mileage. She can open her account in the finale. Cailin Deas made the frame again at Galway last month and looks the likeliest danger, with Red Oak best of the rest.
