- 11. RUE RECAMIER - Unraced filly by Threat, the dam ran a few times. Stable runners warrant respect. Monitor the betting patterns for clues
- 12. PULP FICTION - Filly by Seabhac, the dam won 1 race over 2400m. Stable runners are usually better for a few runs, and this filly should be watched in the betting for any market support
- 13. SUEZ - Newcomer by Le Brivido, the dam never raced. From a good stable that can ready a debutante to strike first time out. The betting can guide

Summary: TONNANT (1) has run two promising races so far. His fifth at Saint-Cloud was behind a nice prospect. He is taken to get off the mark ahead of YOKOZUNA (3), who can only improve from his debut sixth at Saint-Cloud in a race for unraced at Saint-Cloud on September 12th. SUEZ (13) has a nice profile and is representing a good trainer, who can ready a newcomer. She is one to watch in the betting exchanges. RUE RECAMIER (11) makes up the shortlist.

Summary: HUMAN EVOLUTION (16) sits at the foot of the handicap and looks the one to beat, especially with Maxime Guyon booked. His third-place effort at this track two starts ago was solid. DAMASK BLADE (2) has been consistent, placing in four of his last five outings, and should be in the mix again. His main danger could be SELENA GOLD (3), who has shown promise in France and scored over 1600m in Poland in May. She warrants respect. SILGREYPIT (5) ran a fair fifth in a recent Clairefontaine claimer and has stronger form in the book, including a runner-up finish in a Class 2 race in June. Summary: PERCIVAL (5) was an impressive four-length winner on his second start in a Saint-Cloud maiden last November. The runner-up that day, Aidan's Phone, has since scored at Listed level, boosting the form. Well-prepared for this return, he gets the nod over FAMILLY (7), who ran a solid second in a Class 2 event at Parislongchamp just 18 days ago. STARNBERG (3), a three-time winning juvenile, is capable of bouncing back after some below-par efforts. MISTER BANKER (1) looks best of the remainder.
