1 Gibraltar comes with a couple of wins in a row and has so far been at least second in four starts. Quick starter and should have a good chance of finding the lead with this lane and then he will be hard to reach. 2 Run Run Lilleman made a good comeback last time and is likely to move forward with that race. Challenging for the victory. 3 Mr Boenasera is a quick starter and will reach a nice position and should not be overlooked from a nice starting lane. 4 Bearnard is fast and good enough to be in the mix here.

1 Victory Poseidon comes back after a pause and the day's form is a question mark. In terms of capacity, however, he is an early choice here and he could certainly lead this throughout. 2 Cente is consistent and good most of the time. Has not won yet after eleven attempts, but clearly deserves a victory. 7 Simb Rooney is a good sprinter who can go all the way in case of quick pace. 4 Sposa Dura has got two runs under his belt and is getting better with each start. Can surprise.

3 Flying Fortress followed well last time as second. It was her first start since June and the mare has certainly been improved quite a bit with that race and should be ready to take her first win. 7 Kaffeåchampagne came back strongly as second after an early mistake last time. Deserves a victory and could score it here. 9 Jula Lovely now has one run under the belt and is one of several horses who can win this race. 12 Ina Crown put in a strong final lap and could pass many opponents here on the home stretch.

5 Hands Down has not trotted perfectly at the end, but he has good speed and should be considered early in this type of race. Jonathan Carré for the first time and our winner. 6 Romo likes to race under the saddle. The gelding has earlier won with Tova Bengtsson in the saddle and can do so again. 7 I Am D. was good as second four starts ago and is in the mix here with a similar effort. 1 Longines did well last time out, but now has 23 consecutive starts without a win.

2 Gloire D'Empire scored two good wins in a row before last time out in a V75 race from a difficult starting lane. Different conditions now and from the lead this is the horse to beat. 8 Hard Center impressed last time when he left the field after a race on the outside of the leader. Has been a scratch after that, but is the obvious challenger. 1 It's About Time was clearly positive in his comeback last time. Gets a defensive trip on the inside here and will finish fast. 10 Calling Out is driven by Stefan Persson for the first time, which is interesting.

4 Juicy got a short break after the last start which ended in a gallop. The mare has earlier opened fast with the circular start and this fourth lane should not be a problem. Our pick in an open race. 12 Pam Trot is coming back after a break and even if she may lack a bit of form, she should still be able to fight for victory. 13 Feline Burgerheide is good for the class and, despite the handicap, she is one of the early contenders here. 3 Zmarta Tim faces slightly tougher opponents now, but is in top form.
