9 Sahara E.Type has shown good development. Attacking from behind is no problem and with the right journey she should be able to finish to victory again. 12 Marjons Mio met tough opponents last year. If she keeps up her form she is possible as well with the right trip. 6 Colombe Blanche has given a good impression but been a bit slow and barefoot feels exciting. 7 Henessi Amore is tricky but is good for this class if he is at his best.

5 Phantom Le Soleil finished well in the seasonal debut. Easier opposition now and he has got a top driver here. The Stefan P Pettersson stable has shown good form. 1 Bravo Benellie scored a strong win. The inner lane at Eskilstuna is tricky, but the mare can open fast and should get a good trip. 3 Thomas can do better than last time and uses to finish well. 2 Bardot is a quick starter and should get a nice trip in front.

RANK

1 Pure Count won in a nice way in the seasonal debut. Together with Carl Johan Jepson he should have a good chance to reach the front. The horse to beat from there. 13 Verner Palema was never close to losing last time. Needs some racing luck, but with a similar performance he is an early challenger. 5 Maharadona races barefoot in this seasonal debut and is interesting right away. 11 Global Feature is up and down, but has good skills.

4 Reven Dejavu has clearly shown the highest capacity at the end. Carl Johan Jepson and could reach the front, from where he has won ten times in 15 attempts. Hard to beat. 10 Sourire Frö should have been improved by the last race. In case of quick pace, the seven-year-old will pass many opponents. 6 Corazon De B. did well in the last race and faces easier opponents this time. 3 Readly Lavec makes his seasonal debut but should not be overlooked from the pocket.
