2 Evan Pepper won in a really nice way in the last race after a trip behind Atomic Pepper along the way, and then deciding over the home stretch. Is a quick starter and regardless the journey, the horse should have a good chance again. 3 Atomic Pepper finished second in the last race behind our pick and also his stable companion. Has to be considered. 6 Seaside Fun is a real talent that has to be considered early despite a couple of tough opponents. 4 Don Diablo will be interesting to follow barefoot.

3 Ferden surprised in the last race but was very impressive. An early choice here too with a similar performance not least as the horse is a very quick starter and will be in the lead early on. 1 Arkimedes is matched in fairly good company, but will have difficulty holding out our pick from the start. Early contender. 6 Ingtulla is favored by an American bike, but will face stallions and geldings this time. 8 Hasli Tore has a poor starting position but owns quite good speed.

2 Bunny is very strong and has made four races now after a long layoff. The top form should be close and from a perfect starting position the horse should have a good chance, even if the opposition is tough. 4 Extreme Point is the main challenger considering the fantastic attitude the horse owns. 5 Nelson Daytona is a real natural trotter who rarely disappoints. Has to be considered early here too. 1 Southbeach Volo has a run under his belt and should be developing well.

A: 2-4

6 Trolljerven is very convincing and has won even though he has galloped in a couple of starts recently. However, the horse shows the right attitude and has plenty of capacity for this class. Top chance. 8 Låhne Goliat scored a good win in the last race after a layoff. Tricky lane but is still an early contender. 2 Neslands Gnist is possible too here. 9 Ramstad Frekken owns good speed.

5 Stella Ammik did really well in the last race, even though her winning streak got broken. Now she only faces four-year-olds, last time she met older competitors. Barefoot should be an advantage. She should have a good chance here. 7 Onyx B.R. was heavily backed in the Norwegian Trotting Criterium last year. He was good as second in the seasonal debut and will make a lot of progress with that run under his belt. 3 A.V.'s Shannon is a fast starter and will reach a good position. 8 Bully Pepper is possible too with the right trip.
