2 Maestro Unico took the lead in the last race and won comfortably. Lennartsson again and from a good starting position he should have the best chance to win this race. 4 Tactic Lane has been on the way up lately and is now making an interesting first start over the short distance. 3 Good Reads likes these conditions and is an early contender here from a good starting position. 8 Mr Boenasera has been consistent and good. Is driven by Mats E Djuse for the first time which is interesting.

2 Ready For Boarding has scored two good second places. With only four horses in the first circle, the three-year-old reaches the front and once there, he won't be easy to reach. 3 Damon Hill did well in the last race after a quick finish and with a similar performance as in the last race he will be in the mix here. 1 Herman Dee has a run under his belt and should not be discounted from this inner lane. 13 Fabulous Gent is perhaps the fastest in this field but needs some racing luck from this tricky lane.

4 Handfullofdollar finished third in the last race. Had shown top form before so he should have top chance from a perfect starting position. 1 Andy Gel galloped straight away in the last race but was really good the previous time. Will get a nice trip and is in the mix. 12 Incomparable met too tough opposition in the last race. Nice impression the previous time and normally passes most of the opponents during the final lap. 9 The Little Plug comes back after a break and should be considered even if the form is a bit hard to predict.

8 Icebreaker D.K. was a non-starter in the last race in Copenhagen due to poor blood values. He is working well again and this looks like a nice task. 2 Friend Of Elves got locked in last time he started and had a lot of energy spared. Took it easy for a few weeks, but should be considered straight away from a nice post. 7 Flotilla is matched in tough competition and should normally be followed in this field. 1 Moonshot is a quick starter and will reach a good position straight away. Could surprise if the favorite fails.
