4 V.G. King Flash met really good horses last time and finished to a nice third spot. Considering how the four-year-old has performed lately, he should have a good chance here. Not very fast from the start, but will reach a good position in this small field. Owns good strength.

6 Blits Lane set a good time in the last race after an inside trip. Won the last race day at this track. 2 Time For Me To Fly put in a strong spurt from far behind in the last race. Possible. 5 Global Discovery is good but has only made one start since April.

7 Lexington Yoda has not won since October last year, but has been consistent and good most of the time. Showed fine form before that. 4 Lukanos is perhaps the best horse in the race, but has not convinced lately. Early choice if he is at his best. 2 Jeppas Upperkut was brilliant in the last race. Tougher now.
