RANK

1 Lemon Bar Mearas has shown good skills and won a V75 race as recently as July. He is not completely reliable but in terms of capacity he is really good for this class and he could eventually find the lead from here. 9 Elusive Brodda is used to compete in tough companies and is stepping down in class here. 7 Chevalier Indika finished strongly in the last race a bit behind the winner and is driven by Jepson again. 10 Maestro Unico is good enough to win if he lives up to his capacity.

RANK

11 Lover Boy has shown good capacity and won two races in a row since finishing sixth in the debut with plenty of energy left. Wallin's 3-year-old had been a scratch twice before the last race and should therefore have moved forward with that run under his belt. 8 Godot has not started since October last year and is also makes his debut for a new trainer, but should still be considered early. 3 Kebo Smart has not raced for a while and not won a race after eleven attempts. However, the Orlando Vici son has shown good speed. 1 Fantome D'Inverne is the stable pleased with but has not convinced so far.

RANK

5 Dufresne has not shown his full potential but impressed in the last comeback and will be interesting to follow this autumn, as long as he stays fit. 7 Olympia Sting finished well as second behind promising Chamberi in the last race and should have improved by that run under his belt. 6 Ies U.Liberty has been up and down between the wins but has shown enough speed to finish in front. 11 Vikens Haybar was clearly good from the front in the last comeback race. On the way up.

11 Galadriel was brilliant in the comeback two starts back and sprinted to victory. She did alright in the last race but can certainly do even better. Should be on the way up and the opposition is not too strong today. 5 Legal Eagle Sisú is capable and faces nice conditions. Stepping down in class but shoes this time is a clear minus. 12 King competed in a tough V75 race last time. 6 Expensive Jewel was a scratch before last time and should be better now.

2 Grand Circuit finished strongly as second in a top time last time and showed that his form is significantly better than the results suggest. The four-year-old is matched in tough companies and is now stepping down in class. 11 Pasha Newport has faced the better three-year-olds and beat Googoo Fairytale two starts back and was third behind Elton Broline and Nightlife In last time. 3 Who's The Winner has good capacity for this class but he has even more to give. 6 B.T.s' Vencor uses to have a strong finish with the right backs.

RANK

5 Freako finished well in the last race and has two runs under his belt for Svedberg. The five-year-old has faced tough opposition throughout his career and should have a good chance of winning in an otherwise open race. 7 Fahrenheit is matched over tough conditions and did well in the last race a bit behind the winner. Early challenger here. 12 Klondyke River showed clear improvement in the last race and should be considered early despite this lane. Owns good strength. 3 Northman Maxus is in top form and has the right attitude.
