RANK

7 Gabbys Last finished well in the last race. The five-year-old has won three out of seven races on Swedish soil and all with Carl Johan Jepson. Good chance of winning. 8 Great Pulsion never had a chance in the last V85 race but is an early contender in this type of race. Owns good speed and is one of the hot favorites. 3 Vikens Return has nice speed, but gallops a lot. The only win was taken from the lead and if he gets there, he is the horse to beat. 6 Jalichia R.D. has not started for a while but has good capacity and should be considered.

4 Noble Express opens fast and is the favorite for the lead and in that position he has taken five of total eight wins. Our pick. 3 Annabelle finished well in the last V85 race. Good draw and if the mare can save her speed, she could prove to be the strongest at the end. 7 Alunita has met good opposition towards the end. In the mix with the right trip. 8 Cameron Hills never had a real chance after a quick finish in the last race. He got locked in before that, so his form is better than the latest results show.

1 Langlands Ballerina has a perfect starting position and can open quite fast. Hard to beat if she avoids a mistake. 2 Storm Annsgal is a quick starter and the favorite for the lead and from that position the six-year-old has been at least second in seven starts in Sweden. 10 Åse Fryd owns nice speed, but gallops a lot too. She is one of the better horses in this race. 8 Briske Pilen made his first start in the last seven months and will be clearly improved now.

8 Lyme Regis has come back really well after surgery. He showed in the last race that he is just as good from behind and with a similar effort he could score another win here. 10 Captain Adore will return after a layoff and even though the form is hard to predict, he should still be considered early here. 7 Constanzia is in good form today. New driver and should be followed despite a difficult starting number. 12 Aniara C.D. is good for this class and should not be underestimated despite a very poor starting position.
